Nobel Awards Go To Three U.S. Scientists

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Three American scientists Wednesday won the 1955 Nobel prizes in chemistry and physics.

Dr. Vincent du Vigneaud of Cornell University medical college will receive the $36,720 chemistry award for work on two hormones that help in childbirth and keep a check on vital organs like the kidneys.

The physics award goes jointly to Dr. Willis E. Lamb of Stanford University and Dr. Polykarp Kusch of Columbia University. They will split $36,720 for work in connection with atomic measurements. Their work corrected an error made by a Briton who previously won the Nobel prize.

The prizes, announced by the Royal Swedish Academy of Science, will be presented by King Gustaf Adolf here Dec. 10. The awards were created by the will of Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite.

Hormone

Dr. Du Vigneaud, born in Chicago 54 years ago was the first scientist to take apart and put together a hormone produced by the pituitary gland. Nobel authorities described his work on the two substances—oxytocin and vasopressin—as "a historic feat in biochemistry."

Dr. Du Gigneaud was a fornt runner for the 1955 Nobel prize in medicine, awarded last month to Dr. Hugo Theorell, a Swedish authority on enzyme chemistry. Both these scientists have been among top candidates for many years. Their field of biochemistry borders between medicine and chemistry. Informants said the prize awarders decided to give the 1955 chemistry award to the American because 44 years had passed since a Swede received the medicine prize.

Inside Atom

The work that won the physics prize for Dr. Lamb, 42, and Dr. Kusch, 44, was described by the Academy as a major advance toward learning what goes on inside the atom. It enabled scientists to calculate correctly the properties of some of its component parts.

Expressing his pleasure at sharing the award with Dr. Kusch, Dr. Lamb said at Palo Alto, Calif.: "Polykarp Kusch is one of my oldest and dearest friends and it couldn't have happened to a nicer man." Dr. Lamb is a Los Angeles native.

Dr. Kusch was born in Blankenburg, Germany, and was taken to the United States when a year old. He became a U.S. citizen in 1922.

State's Farm Income Drops By $72 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nebraska farmers' cash income dropped some 72 million dollars during the first two-thirds of 1955, compared with the similar period of last year.

The Agriculture Department reports that total cash receipts from Nebraska farm marketings amounted to $625,264,000 in the January-through August period as compared with $697,961,000 at the same stage of 1954.

All except two states in the midwest farm belt — Minnesota and North Dakota — had similar declines.

Minnesota farmers took in $798,755,000 during the 8-month stretch as against $775,876,000 a year ago while North Dakota farmers had a return of $220,567,000 as against $198,925,000.

NINA WARREN

'HoneyBear'Warren Elopes With Doctor

. . . Nina, Hubby Honeymoon In Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Nina (Honey Bear) Warren, youngest daughter of Chief Justice and Mrs. Earl Warren, is honeymooning with Dr. Stuart Brien, Pittsburgh-born physician now of Beverly Hills, Calif.

The couple eloped Tuesday night. They were wed two minutes before midnight to mark, they said, the three-month observance of their meeting.

The bride is 22; Dr. Brien, 33.

The elopment came as a surprise. The couple had obtained a California marriage license in Santa Monica two days earlier and Nina said her parents would announce the wedding date.

Nevada License

But they flew here and were met by a hotel executive who hustled them to a courthouse for a Nevada license at 11:20 p.m.

At 11:58 p.m. they exchanged vows before Justice of the Peace John Mendoza in a penthouse suite atop the Hotel Riviera.

Saul Bihari, Los Angeles record company head, and his wife Linda were best man and matron of honor.

3 Months

They said Nina and Dr. Brien had started out to celebrate their engagement in Hollywood, but, when they realized it was exactly three months since they first met, decided to hop aboard a scheduled airliner for Nevada.

Nina recovered fully from a leg paralysis after a polio attack in 1950, and later attended UCLA.

Dr. Brien was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh Medical School in 1948 and has been practicing in Beverly Hills for several years.

The couple will make their home in Beverly Hills.

'Very Happy'

WASHINGTON (INS)—Mrs. Earl Warren said she and the chief justice are "very happy" over the marriage of their youngest daughter, Nina, to a West Coast surgeon.

"We knew they were going to be married," Mrs. Warren told a reporter, "so it came as no surprise. As a matter of fact, the chief justice and I have been discussing the marriage for many days."

COLD, SUNSHINY DAY DUE AFTER SNOW

A cold but generallly sunshiny day was forecast for Nebraska Thursday in the wake of the season's first snowfall.

Temperatures were expected to fall to 5-10 above in the west and north and to near 15 above in the southeast by Thursday morning.

Early Thursday morning the temperature had already dropped to 10 degrees at North Platte, 14 at Chadron, and two or three degrees highers at other western and central Nebraska points.

In downtown Lincoln it was 24 and the mercury was skidding toward the 20-degree mark early Thursday.

Moderating temparatures over western and central Nebraska were forecast during the day, with the high to be in the 40s in the Panhandle. Other areas were to have readings in the 30s.

A snowfall up to 2 inches moved across the state early Wednesday as the temperature reached a low of 11 at Chadron.

North Platte and Ainsworth had 2 inches of snow, Burwell 1½ and O'Neill, Imperial, Grand Island and Chadron an inch.

Lincoln's snowfall measured an inch and brought .10 inch of moisture.

Moisture content of the snow was .23 inch at North Platte, .10 at Imperial, .08 at Chadron, .06 at Grand Island, .2 at Norfolk and .01 at Scottsbluff.

Clear skies covered most of the state Wednesday after the storm reached the eastern edge by noon.

Beatrice had heavy snow flurries and Exeter reported light snow during the morning.

The storm made roads slippery in only a few spots, the State Highway Department said.

1,500 Attend Last Forum On Medical Problems

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Arthritis and rheumatism, seldom a direct cause of death, appear generally to have a natural course of somewhat spontaneous appearance followed by periods of both improvement and chronic reoccurance.

These remarks by Dr. Frank Tanner as moderator prefaced the Medical Forum on "Arthritis and Rheumatism" held Wednesday night at St. Paul Methodist Church.

It was the final forum in a series co-sponsored by the Lancaster County Medical Association and Sunday Journal and Star. The sponsors indicated future medical forums will be held.

Panel members were Dr. Fred Webster, chairman; Dr. Forrest Rose, Dr. Bowen Taylor, Dr. Maurice Frazer, and Dr. Hobart E. Wallace.

Approximately 1,500 persons attended the forum, despite the cold wave Wednesday. Women outnumbered men about 10 to one.

Dr. Tanner, in opening remarks, pointed out that many complaints, attributed to these diseases, may be only part of the "aging process" in some cases, as arthritis and rheumatism are largely general body conditions.

Questions submitted to the medical panelists and their answers included:

What is the difference between arthritis, neuritis and rheumatism?

Arthritis is the inflammation and swelling of the bone joints; neuritis is the inflammation of the nerves and rheumatism is inflammation of the muscles.

What are the kinds of arthritis?

They are generally classified into five groups. 1. Infectional types—those caused by bacteria, but which are relatively uncommon. 2. Those of unknown causes, such as rheumatic fever and rheumatoid arthritis, whose cause are suspected as streptococus infection. 3. Degenerative joint disease. 4. Metabolic types, such as gout. 5: Miscellaneous, those from neuropatic, trauma, and other conditions.

Is arthritis inherited?

No, not the disease itself. Neither is it believed that the tendency can be inherited.

What can be done to prevent arthritis and rheumatism?

The type involved must be known. Those known related to infectious causes can be prevented by treatment.

Does a blow or injury cause arthritis or rheumatism?

Arthritis can be caused by a blow or injury if it directly involves the joint.

How can you tell the difference between the two?

Rheumatism, a muscular condition, is more diffused while arthritis, affecting joints, is more localized.

What aggravates arthritis?

Worry and anxiety which may affect the general body condition will aggravate arthritis. Barometric changes in pressure may aggravate arthritis. Hence, a dry and warm climate may improve arthritis because of the more steady air pressure and general warmth. However, even in more changeable climates, proper housing and clothing can achieve the same results.

Can uranium mines help arthritis?

They are of no value. Uranium exposure is of no help to arthritis, and too much exposure can be harmful to the blood and body tissues.

What is bursitis?

It is the inflamation and swelling of the bursa, a pouch-like receptacle which cushions the body joints. Its pain can be relieved by x-ray therapy, used judiciously in treatment of acute cases, but not as a long-range method.

Does strenuous activity or work in youth cause arthritis in old age?

There generally is no relationship.

How can arthritic or rheumatic pain be relieved?

It depends upon the type and cause. Treatments include hypo injections, heat, massage, and sometimes surgery.

Can arthritis be cured or relieved?

Most every form of arthritis can be given some relief with correct treatment. The patient may not have a pain-free existence, but can be given a more endurable life.

Egypt Claims Attack

Israel Premier Turned Down On Talks

JERUSALEM (Thursday) (INS)—Egypt reported a new Israeli attack today on an Egyptian desert outpost as Arab spokesmen turned down Premier David Ben-Gurion's call for immediate talks to avert a Middle East explosion.

A government spokesman in Cairo said the Israeli attack against the Sinai desert position was launched at 10 p.m. (2 p. m. CST) Wednesday, and fighting was still going on early Thursday morning.

Ben-Gurion

The latest border flareup followed Egyptian charges that Egyptian anti-aircraft batteries in the Gaza coastal strip opened fire on Israeli planes flying over the Egyptian-held territory. Gaza officials said it was believed an Israeli plane was hit in the wing.

Earlier reports told of a bloodless, two-hour gun battle between Syrian and Israeli forces on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee, in the north.

El Auja Clash

The latest clash reported by Cairo occurred at Safha, south of the strife-torn El Auja demilitarized zone between Israeli and Egyptian territory.

The fighting was disclosed as Arab officials in Cairo and Baghdad rejected the proposal by the 69-year-old Ben-Gurion for Middle East talks "as soon as possible."

Ben-Gurion spoke in the Israeli Parliament on his return to the premiership he relinquished nearly two years ago, in the hope of finding peace as a settler in Israeli's southern desert area.

An official spokesman in Baghdad announced Iraq's rejection of the Ben-Gurion proposal, saying the government would stick to its policy of refusing to negotiate with Israel.

The Arab states do not recognize the Israeli government.

—Week-Long Skirmishing Breaks Open—

Gasoline Price War Drops Regular 9c A Gallon Here

A major gasoline war burst open in Lincoln Wednesday after smoldering along for a week with steadily declining prices at the city's some 150 service stations.

Prices for regular gasoline dropped late Wednesday to 21 cents a gallon, the lowest of the present price fight.

Nearly all stations throughout the city were affected by the price cutting, especially the independent stations not backed by major brand wholesale dealers.

The bulk handlers during price wars often cut bulk prices to retail outlets to keep them from being hurt too greatly.

Prevailing prices before the war began were 29.9 cents a gallon for regular and 31.9 cents Ethyl at name-brand stations. Independent stations sold for two to three cents per gallon below those prices.

$1 Million A Month

If all retail dealers were to drop their prices to the present bottom level, gasoline outlet dealers in the city, both independent and brand name, might lose close to $1 million in a month's time, trade spokesmen said.

Actually, the price cutting started a week ago Wednesday and gradually built up to the current figure.

William Deneke, president of the Lincoln Retail Petroleum Assn., called the war "unfortunate" and said "we are doing our utmost to put a stop" to it. He said the price war "gains poor public relations" and would seriously hurt some dealers.

Retail dealers and gasoline distributors attributed the war to several factors. Price-cutting independents received most of the blame, but one dealer suggested the war was started by a major company after a week of planning.

Dealer Denials

However, local dealers of the company denied the charge. That firm's service stations listed their prices Wednesday at 22.9 cents for regular and 24.9 for Ethyl.

One large brand retail dealer with several station outlets, said the city price war on gasoline was started by independent dealers outside the city who normally sell gasoline two to three cents cheaper than city stations.

These stations, moving into the city and keeping the out-city rates, have forced stations in Lincoln to cut their prices correspondingly, he said.

A 10th and R station operator, W L. Schmieding, said the cut wasn't caused by the increase in the number of stations in the area.

5c Spread

Another dealer said the move by the bulk plant distributors was an effort to cut down on the price spread between the distributors and the service station outlets. The spread was a little over five cents a gallon, with one cent going back to the distributors in the form of rent.

O. J. Shaw, president-manager of the Lincoln Oil Co. with 20 branch outlets in the city, said his stations were forced to drop their prices to meet the "mobile" competition of the trade. Shaw said all operators are affected "one way or the other" and that all will be hurt.

Most stations, especially the independents, store close to 5,000 gallons of gasoline at all times, which is paid for on receipt at the prevailing prices of the market from the bulk plants.

But when they buy at, say, 25 cents a gallon and have to sell for 22 cents, they sustain the three cent loss, trade sources said.

Premiums A Factor

Several operators thought the war was started because of the independents moving into the city, cutting prices, and providing sales premiums. Such stations, it was pointed out, usually sell only gasoline and oil and do not offer other services, such as greasing cars or wash jobs.

Deneke, whose association includes about 50 per cent of the brand-name dealers in the city, said no meetings have been set to date to try to break the war.

A possibility of one aspect of the price cutting ending up in court was suggested by one dealer who refused to go along with the full price cut.

He said he was told by a bulk distributor he wouldn't receive the same price differential as retail dealers who were selling for much less.

As an example, he said, retail dealers who were selling for 22 cents were buying gasoline for 17 cents. But dealers selling for 25 cents a gallon still were paying the regular markup, or 20 cents a gallon.

Captive Breaks Free, Kills Man Molesting Wife

NEPTUNE TOWNSHIP, N.J., (AP) — A motel owner, shut in a closet by a gunman who had just shot a state trooper, broke free Wednesday and killed the fugitive as he molested the owner's wife.

A mile away from the tense drama, several hundred police were searching a wooded area for the man who had held up a gasoline station and later killed trooper John Anderson with four shots.

Three In Family Injured In Crash

Three members of a Brainard family were treated for minor injuries at Lincoln General Hospital and later released Wednesday.

Mrs. Caroline Kutka 56, and her son Herman, 27, and daughter Betty, 23, were slightly injured when the car in which they were riding slipped off slippery Highway 79 between Raymond and Brainard.

They all received minor abrasions and bruises, hospital authorities said.

Kosmet Revue Banned For 'Questionable' Taste

Further performances of the University of Nebraska Kosmet Klub fall revue were banned Wednesday afternoon because of the show's "very questionable taste."

The University's faculty committee on student affairs voted to ban indefinitely the club's fall show. The action followed unfavorable reports on the revue staged last Friday night at the Coliseum, University sources said.

The Kosmet Klub, a campus dramatic society, sponsors the fall performance which features student-produced skits. Not involved in the ban was the same organization's spring show, which usually is a performance of a Broadway musical.

Von Innes, Kosmet Club president, said Friday night's show skits were approved by the club's advisors, Van Westover and Dr. Harry L. Weaver, before presentation.

Marshall Kushner, a University graduate who acted as master of ceremonies, said he was not asked to submit his material to the advisors prior to the show.

"The faculty committee is making a mistake," he said, "in blaming an organization for something which I did." Kushner said he understood he had come up with a few ad lib remarks which were "not as subtle as they might have been."

He said some of the remarks were misconstrued by the audience. Kushner said he had written a letter of apology to the Kosmet Klub and talked with Dean Colbert.

The faculty committee, composed of 12 faculty members with Dean of Student Affairs J. P. Colbert as chairman, released a statement on its action. It said:

"The (faculty) senate on student affairs held a lengthy hearing on the matter of the Kosmet Klub's fall revue given last Friday evening.

"Five officers of the Kosmet Klub were invited to participate in the hearing. It is the opinion of the committee on student affairs that the fall revue was performed in very questionable taste and in a manner unbecoming students of this University.

"It is the committee's decision that the fall revue shall be banned from any further performances."

Kosmet Klub officers who attended the committee meeting were Innes; Chuck Thomsen, vice president; Al Schmid, secretary; Barry Larson, treasurer, and Andy Smith, director of the show.

Dean Colbert said the Kosmet Klub was granted permission to petition for re-establishment of the fall revue "at some subsequent time." A University official said, however, it was unlikely such permission would be granted in time for a performance next fall.

Dean Colbert added that the "questionable character" of the show had been the source of complaints in previous years from students, parents and faculty members.

This year's show was entitled "Legendary Lapses." Six fraternities presented skits and three fraternities entered curtain acts.

9 Red Ships 'Sunk'

Chiang Jets Hit Gunboat Buildup

TAIPEI, Formosa (Thursday) (AP) — An air-sea battle and artillery duels roared along the offshore island front Wednesday in a sudden flareup of China's dormant vest pocket war.

The Nationalists claimed their Thunderjets sank nine Red gunboats and other craft despite a storm of antiaircraft fire from the ships and Red guns on the mainland.

Communist ships had been reported massing in Santuao inlet, 25 miles north of the Matsu group where the Nationalist garrison this week was put on the alert for a possible Red invasion.

Fire Bombs Rained

An Air Force communique said two formations of Thunderjets were dispatched from Formosa and rained napalm (fire) bombs and rockets on the concentration.

The communique said six gunboats and other unidentified armed craft and three large wooden ships were destroyed. Pilots reported great clouds of smoke rose from the scene.

The antiaircraft fire had no effect on the attacking Thunderjets, the communique asserted. MIG jets were sent down from the big Red base at Lukiao, about 180 miles north of the Matsus, but they arrived too late.

Fire From Mainland

Late in the afternoon, Red artillery from the mainland and an adjacent island opened up on strongly fortified Quemoy Island, 120 miles across the strait from Formosa.

Within a period of less than 2½ hours, the Reds poured 421 shells on Quemoy, the Defense Ministry reported. It insisted, however, that no damage or casualties resulted and that answering fire silenced the Red batteries.

It was the heaviest shelling of Quemoy since Oct. 2, when 538 rounds hit the island.

Bomber Hits Home, 2 Killed

. . . Long Island Crash

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (AP) — A twin-engined Air Force bomber crashed amid a row of small private homes here Wednesday, heavily damaging one of them. By a miracle, only the two airmen aboard the plane were killed.

The B-26 medium bomber was returning to Mitchel Air Force Base after a routine training flight when it went into what was described as a "flat spin." It crashed in the front yard of a one-story Cape Cod house in the middle of a block.

The scene is about a mile and a half east of Mitchel Field.

The owner of the house, Paul Koroluck, a newspaper compositor, was at work. His wife, Susan, had been visiting her mother with her 2-year-old daughter and was on her way home.

A number of children were playing in the street as the bomber plunged out of the bright late afternoon autumn sky. Within a few feet of where the bomber hit, a neighbor was raking his lawn.

Despite the neighborhood activity in the path of the descending bomber, no civilians were injured.

The plane caught fire and the flames spread to the Koroluck home, badly damaging it. Water further damaged the dwelling as firemen extinguished the blaze.

The Air Force identified the dead airmen as Capt. Clayton S. Elwood, 39, of Fairfield, Conn., the pilot, and S.Sgt. Charles R. Slater, 23, of Mitchel Field.

Gradual Merger Plan For Germany Turned Down

Elections Demand Is Renewed

. . . By Western Powers

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union advanced a proposal Wednesday for gradual merger of East and West Germany. The three Western foreign ministers promptly rejected it and repeated their demand for free elections to unify Germany.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov also revived an old Soviet proposal for withdrawal of foreign armed forces from divided Germany and set a new three-month deadline for it. The West immediately turned a cold shoulder to this idea.

Molotov's Proposal

The merger plan would be built around an all-German Council from the two Parliaments in East and West Germany. Arguing that this was the only way to tackle the unity problem, Molotov proposed to the Big Four foreign ministers conference:

1. Formation of an All-German Council as a "consultative body."

2. Under the council, mixed committees from the two governments would deal with economic and cultural ties, including German currency, intra-German financial transactions, customs, post and telegraph, and transport.

Defense Plan

3. The council "shall bring about accord" on the strength, armaments and location of forces to defend the two republics' frontiers and territories.

4. The council "shall bring about accord" on the republics' participation in European security measures and "shall consider by mutual agreement" questions relating to "the briging about of prerequisites for the unification of Germany as a peaceful and democratic state."

Zone Government

British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan declared, "The Soviet proposals are an unparalleled diktat (dictate), far more drastic than the provisions of any previous treaty.

U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told Molotov that "only by free elections can the wishes of the German people be ascertained."

TRAPPED BY CEMENT AUGER

HST GIVES HARRIMAN HIGH PRAISE IN BOOK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Truman gives high praise to Averell Harriman, governor of New York and prominently mentioned Democratic presidential possibility, in the first volume of his memoirs, published Wednesday.

Truman says Harriman performed "vital service" as this country's World War II ambassador to Moscow, and he relates that Harriman gave him urgent personal advice that the United States must stand firm against a postwar Soviet "barbarian invasion of Europe."

"At this point," Truman relates, "I stopped Harriman to say that I was not afraid of the Russians and that I intended to be firm. I would be fair, of course, and anyway the Russians needed us more than we needed them."

Excerpts from the Truman memoirs have been published in Life magazine and the New York Times. The complete first volume, "Year of Decisions," contains many added details.

The portions of the book praising Harriman have unusual interest in the light of Truman's recent statements describing the New York governor as exceptionally well-qualified for the Democratic presidential nomination. Truman also has said, however, he is not backing away from Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 nominee.

Archbishop Says Princess Made Her Own Choice

LONDON (INS)—The Archbishop of Canterbury emphatically insisted Wednesday night that neither the Church of England nor the state exerted any pressure on Princess Margaret to give up the idea of marriage to Peter Townsend.

The 68-year-old primate of all England made an unprecedented appearance before the television cameras at Lambeth Palace, his home, to defend the church's role in the love story.

The Archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, spoke to the nation a few hours after Margaret attended a commemorative service at St. Paul's Cathedral—her first public appearance since she decided Monday not to marry the divorced commoner.

The Archbishop said "there was no pressure upon Princess Margaret from state or church. There was no pressure at all from the church.

"Her decision was purely on the grounds of conscience."

Cop Shoots Wife During Session In Domestic Court

NEW YORK (AP) — Domestic discord between a policeman and his estranged wife flared into violence Wednesday in a Brooklyn courthouse. The wife was shot and critically wounded.

The gunfire threw a roomful of about 70 people into pandemonium. Some dropped to the floor, or crouched behind benches, and others fled screaming toward exits.

Police said the husband, Herman Baker, 37, a veteran policeman, walked up behind his wife, Sandra, 38, as she sat in a court waiting room, and shot her in the back of the neck.

The bullet emerged in the front of her throat. Bleeding profusely, she struggled to her feet, tottered to a door of the courtroom of Magistrate Charles Ramsgate, pushed it open and collapsed.

Taken to Holy Family Hospital, she was reported in critical condition.

After the shooting, police said, Baker fled down a fire-escape stairwell to the first floor, where another policeman confronted him with a drawn gun and arrested him.

Mrs. Baker, mother of four children, had been waiting for a court hearing before Magistrate Leonard E. Ruisi at the Domestic Relations Court building.

Clifford Murphy Hurt In Car Crash

A 24-year-old Lincoln Air Force Base serviceman, Clifford Murphy of 2103 No. 30th, was injured when the car he was driving missed a county road curve and hit a tree a quarter of a mile south of West O.

He was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital for overnight observation. Two other persons, passengers in the car, were uninjured.

Murphy's father is E. Clifford Murphy, battalion chief of the Lincoln Fire Department.

McCarthy Questions Ruled Out

Kamin Acquitted On Two Charges

BOSTON (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Bailey Aldrich, upholding defense contentions that Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) asked questions beyond the scope of his authority, Wednesday acquitted Leon J. Kamin on two contempt counts and dismissed two other counts of a six-count indictment.

The action, taken before counsel for the 27-year-old former Harvard research assistant began presenting his defense, left only two counts standing against him.

The Question

The charges on which Kamin was acquitted concerned Kamin's refusal to answer at a one-man subcommittee hearing conducted by McCarthy in Boston on Jan. 15, 1954, whether he knew any Communists teaching at or "connected with" Harvard.

McCarthy's questions were too broad and not pertinent, the judge said, adding that the senator, sitting as a one-man subcommittee, "had no right to engage in a general 'fishing expedition.'"

The Wisconsin senator was not identified by name in the decision but only as the chairman of the subcommittee.

Planning Committees Named For Observance

Members of a committee to plan a meeting and banquet of the Lincoln Chapter of Christmas and Jews to be held during Brotherhood Week in February were named at the chapter's Board meeting.

They are Kenneth Witt, chairman; Louis Finklestein; Harold Hoppe and Dick Lilly.

Plans for a tea to be held in the spring to acquaint Lincoln women with the group were also announced. Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mrs. William Scully and Mrs. Nathan Gold are among women making plans for the tea.

Cosmopolitan Club President Visits

Max Horning of Winnipeg, Canada, international president of the Cosmopolitan Club, will be honored at the Thursday noon meeting of the Lincoln Cosmopolitan Club.

Horning, who is on a tour of midwest clubs, will speak at the luncheon meeting. He was elected to the presidency in July.

Wayne Cooper, member of the international Board of Gocernors, will introduce Horning. Horning's wife is traveling with him and the wives of members will attend the luncheon.

He is coming to Lincoln from Kearney and Grand Island, where he visited the local Cosmopolitan Clubs. From Lincoln he will go to Oklahoma.

Two Missing In Alabama Refinery Fire

BIRMINGPORT, Ala. (AP) —Fire started by an explosion raged through gasoline loading and storage facilities at this Warrior River port Wednesday night, and two persons are missing.

Two large storage gasoline tanks were burning. Birmingham Fire Marshal A. Rosenfeld said, however, it appears the flames may be contained in the dock area.

Sgt. Lionel Freeman of the Alabama highway patrol reported that "it now looks as if the fire may be under control shortly."

Possibility

Rosenfeld said that if the flames are confined to the loading area, "There is a possibility that the fire will burn another 24 hours."

No immediate estimate of damage was available.

The fire was believed to have started in the home of Felton Thrasher superintendent at the Triangle Refineries Co.

Thrasher's daughter, Tina May, is among those missing.

Wednesday night, the flames were threatening truck-loading facilities and a huge storage tank which holds 90,000 barrels of high octane gasoline.

Firemen from Birmingham, Tennessee Coal and Iron Division of United States Steel, and the Hayes Aircraft Co. in Birmingham, helped fight the blaze.

Six Negroes Are Believed Tot Kidnapers

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (AP)—Police said Wednesday four Negro women and two Negro men are believed to be the kidnapers of blond 3-year-old Stephen Damman who disappeared from in front of a Long Island supermarket Monday.

Detective Inspector Stuyvesant Pennell told a news conference:

"Information has come to us which we believe to be the first definite information which may lead to the restoration of the boy to his parents."

He said a white woman he did not identify saw the Negroes make off with the white youngster. The white woman was parked in front of the supermarket waiting for her daughter, who was shopping inside.

Pinnell said he considered the information reliable.

"She saw a man pick up the little boy and walk away with him after conferring with the women," Pinnell told reporters, "and then saw the women push the baby carriage away."

The carriage contained Stephen's 7-months-old sister. She was found unharmed behind the store.

The woman in the car was able to give Nassau County police an excellent description of the Negroes, Pinnell said, and an alarm for their arrest was immediately sent out.

The boy's mother, Marilyn, had left him and the carriage containing his sister in front of the store while she shopped. His father, Jerry, 26, is an Air Force sergeant stationed at nearby Mitchel Air Force Base.

Artist Improves

MOSCOW (AP) — Mexican artist Diego Rivera's wife said he is improving under cobalt treatment for a skin cancer and plans for an operation have been canceled.

Senate Unit Asks Reports On Price Hike In Newsprint

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Senate Banking Committee asked two government agencies Wednesday to prepare reports on the five-dollar-a-ton boost in newsprint prices recently ordered by Canadian producers.

Sen. J. Glenn Beall (R-Md), said the request was made by committee Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), to the Commerce Department and to the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Beall, who has called for hearings on the newsprint price rise, said that the two agencies will furnish complete information on the production-price situation in the newsprint industry.

Fulbright said he wants the reports from the government "in order to give a basis for deciding whether hearings would prove of help in this situation."

U. S. newspaper executives have bitterly denounced the price rise and some have predicted that it may result in a new increase in the cost of newspapers.

Brunette's Story Clears Mystery On Found Body

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Texas Rangers Wednesday quoted a striking brunette that she shot her bridegroom and buried him in a grave he had forced her to dig for her daughter.

They identified her as Mrs. Sunny Canales Worden, 42, of San Antonio. Her statement solved the mystery of a body which was discovered last Saturday and had been unidentified.

Rangers identified it Wednesday as that of Don Worden, San Antonio real estate man. He and Mrs. Worden were married two months ago after she was divorced from Prexides Canales, millionaire Premont, Tex., oil man.

Stock Slaughter Mark Up 26 Pct.

The State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported Wednesday commercial slaughter of livestock in Nebraska in September totalled 255,811,000 pounds live weight.

This was only one-tenth of one per cent, or 225,000 pounds more than in August, but 26 per cent, or 52,045,000 pounds greater than in September, 1954.

Cattle slaughter in September totalled 173,000 head, 8,000 fewer than in August but 31,000 more than in September a year ago.

An estimated 318,000 hogs were slaughtered in September, 46,000 more than in August and 67,000 more than in September, 1954.

The September slaughter of sheep and lambs totalled 107,000 head, compared to 109,000 a year ago.

United Fund Tops Goal 29th Consecutive Year

For the 29th consecutive year, Lincoln's United Community Chest-Red Cross Fund campaign has exceeded its goal.

Workers reported contributions totaling $537,851, nearly $6,000 over the $531,592 goal at the final report luncheon Wednesday.

The total exceeded last year's final results by $46,616, and set an all-time record high.

"Beyond a doubt, this is the most magnificent achievement that our community has performed since the formation of the Chest, and the inclusion of the Red Cross. We are enormously grateful to James Stuart, (general chairman of the campaign) all of his leaders and solicitors, and the tens of thousands of contributors" Harry Simon and Joe E. Fenton said in a joint statmenent.

Simon is president of the Community Chest and Fenton is chairman of the local Red Cross chapter.

Executive Secretary Louis W. Horne will retire this year at the conclusion of 34 campaigns in which he has had an official part. Horne has had a large part in development of the Chest, whose record of 29 continuous successful campaigns is exceeded by only one other city in the United States.

Pat Murphy became the first division general to receive a bronze oscar when the industrial division hit 100 per cent of its quota. The women's division and the business and professional division followed, with Mrs. Hazel Stebbins and Leonard Hines receiving bronze oscars.

Harold Hinds was awarded a bronze oscar as Lt. General of the 100 per cent retail section, and was cited because this section was the first in which every unit achieved its goal.

Herb Heumann and Clyde Underwood, lieutenant generals of the manufacturing and perishable foods division were also given oscars for 100 per cent quotas.

Regimental oscars were awarded to Stannley Wentz, sub-contractor and plumbing; Herb Willey and William Borgaard, transportation; Robert Magee, department stores "A"; Simon Galter, women's clothing, and Richard Wagner, cigars and candy.

Winners of oscars in the women's division were Mrs. Donald Keys, Mrs. Vern Carey and Mrs. Hugh Mason.

Add To Total

Employes in the industrial division added $1,766 to an already 100 per cent quota for a final total of $74,849.

Business and professional employes brought in $1,451 for a final total of $72,493 on their goal of $72,000.

Employes of the wholesale and retail establishments reported $453 to bring their total to $27,627, or 100 per cent of that division's goal of $27,500.

Employes in the public departments and suburbs turned in $6,227 for a total of $65,625, or 100 plus per cent of their goal of $64,388.

The women's division had passed its goal of $15,278 on Monday, but added $278 for a total report of $15,692.

The advance gift division reported $2,590 to bring its total to $281,564. It goal was $280,078.

Employes in the following firms reached or exceeded their goals:

'Disappointed'

BONN (INS) — A wartime German pilot shot down by RAF ace Peter Townsend in the Battle of Britain said that "after all he has done for England he lavishly deserved his princess."

Karl Missy, 43, the former pilot who now runs an engineering firm in West Germany, told International News Service in an exclusive interview that he was "very disappointed" about the broken romance of Princess Margaret and Townsend.

The Snow Fell

Winter moved into Nebraska at midweek. Softly falling snow, first of the season in central and eastern Nebraska laid its pure mantle over towns and farms. Although it lasted but briefly as it touched the warm earth the weather men noted that the cold wave would get colder before it passed over.

Nevertheless it was all enough to convince the everbearing golfers that the 1955 season has ended (for several days as least). And it served to cover the scars of agriculture's mid summer drought. Moreover, it supplied the needed moisture to push the already well-started new wheat into prime condition for the colder months to come. The latter was as to say the disappointments of the recent harvest are passing away in the promise that they will not be repeated next year. It also reminded that Thanksgiving is just around the corner and Christmas is on the horizon.

The first snow reminds that it has been a year of many satisfactions and also of lingering problems. The snow covered the crop land, but it did not obscure the farmer's problem of making both ends meet, the solving of which is so basically important to Nebraska. But it did remind that Nebraska made notable headway in plumbing its underground water resources and during 1955 moved ever nearer toward the goal of ever-normal production and ultimate economic security.

The Navy Moves In

A security-minded nation is quick to note and will long remember the encouraging words of Admiral Arleigh A. Burke that the U.S. Navy will have the beginnings of a powerful nuclear-driven fleet within two years.

Burke made the statement in an address prepared for the commissioning of the World War II cruiser Boston as the Navy's first atomic powered surface ship. For some months the Navy has operated the fully tested submarine, the Nautilus.

The U.S.S. Boston not only will be atomic powered. It will be equipped for handling guided missiles.

The nation has been so attentive to the sky from which bombers can rain devastating nuclear bombs it has been inclined to miss an even more dangerous hole in our continental defense. It is that possibility of a nuclear attack from far out at sea. The great staying power of atomic undersea ships, the almost complete concealment they can enjoy, made more dreadful by the thought that one such, equipped to launch guided nuclear missiles, could surface from a total hideaway in the matter of moments, deliver its devastating charges to the air and submerge without a trace, warns that much remains to be done to cope with such reality. The burden of this phase of security rests upon the Navy and the quicker it plugs the gap the better.

The element of surprise was totally lacking when Soviet spokesmen at Geneva advocated the creation of an all-German council to act as a bridge between West and East Germany.

The proposal followed the Russian party line and in essence only repeated that which so often has been proposed before. It is unsatisfactory to the West because of its premise—one that would recognize the separation of Germany into two parts. It rules out unification.

The seeming good sense in creating an all-German bridge to smooth out German coexistence breaks down under close and cool scrutiny. There is so much that does not meet the casual eye.

Acceptance of a Red-dominated East Germany by the free West, by bridge or any other device, would be no less than a grant of sovereignty to Russia over East Germany and a collapse of any alternative plan envisioning pan-German freedom. The West does not claim nor desire sovereignty over West Germany. It only wishes that all Germany be restored as a sovereign free and peaceable nation. A grant of half of Germany to Russia could not be followed by acquisition of the remaining portion by the West. In the light of that the Russian proposal changes into one of "We get to keep what we have got, and you get out wholly." That is a unilateral and unsatisfactory arrangement.

It is useless to hope for fruitful results from the Geneva conference while negotiations proceed without a meeting of minds on the ultimate objective. When both the West and Russia agree that peace is a primary objective, co-equal with a sovereign, united, prosperous but unwarlike Germany it will not be too difficult to work out the details.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Among the letters which the editor found on his desk Wednesday was one from a young man presently in the service abroad, a very thoughtful, scholarly young man who shortly will return to the United States to resume graduate study and to maintain the healthy, wholesome interest he has always taken in political affairs. He writes: "Being a Democrat by conviction—not by heritage—I doubt seriously if my moderate-to-liberal views will change a great deal in the years to come, and recognizing that fact, I fear that I shall always be among the minority in Nebraska . . . What advice would you give a young person in such a situation?"

★

And then our correspondent, to whom we shall reply in greater length than appears here, adds: "Is there any future for a person of such convictions in my home state or would it be more fruitful to move into a political atmosphere less hostile? I don't know that you would even care to comment on this matter but I do value your opinion and would appreciate your forthright expression and comment." To this young man the editor can give only one answer. There is much more to residence in Nebraska than merely the question of identification with the majority political party or the minority. The state has its great, deep satisfactions, satisfactions which native-born Nebraskans recognize and which account for the devotion men and women hold for this state. It also has its handicaps. Its summers can be torment. Its winters can be rugged. If it is wealth and distinction which the individual craves more than anything else in this world, then the editor's advice is for the young man starting out in life to seek fame and fortune along one of the two seaboards, preferably the west. In the administration of state affairs, Nebraska until 1940 offered the nation one of the strangest examples of independent spirit to be found anywhere in the United States. From the mid-eighties until the late thirties, neither of the two major political parties emained in control of state affairs for a period longer than eight years. The swing of that pendulum could be depended upon. It has been only since the early forties that Nebraska took on what the people of other states regard as extreme conservatism, and Nebraska's dyed-in-the-wool conservatism will not last long whenever the going gets tough economically.

As One Of The Minority

We can blow our tops without a great deal of effort in Nebraska when the family pocketbook is flat. On occasions we can embark upon a course—call it radical, call it liberal, or any other name you may care to apply—but the fact is that we're conservative only when we're reasonably prosperous. Now, a great many Nebraskans may take sharp offense against that observation. They do not relish being told that to some degree, at least, our political life in this state reflects a "belly" philosophy. But the truth is that when we're producing reasonably good crops, selling them for reasonably profitable prices, doing reasonably well in business and industry, we like the people of many other areas can afford to be conservative. We are conservative when the goose hangs high—not so conservative when the skies are overcast.

★

This editor has always thought that most Nebraskans, Republicans or Democrats, recognize in the fullest spirit the individual's right to dissent in political matters, whether it be Republican or Democrat. He subscribes to the belief that in a democracy, two strong political parties are necessary and the independent may become a threat to the development of two strong parties. But the useful citizen must live with his conscience, and upon every issue and in the case of every candidate, his conscience is not going to discover a Republican label or a Democratic label. He is going to find there are good men in both parties—no single party possesses all the able, capable candidates—and no single party possesses all the virtues while the other party symbolizes all the evil. The majority today becomes the minority tomorrow—the minority tomorrow, it frequently develops, becomes the majority day after tomorrow.

Peace With One's Conscience

Part of America's greatness can be attributed to the fact that it has the capacity to change its mind.

Postal Rates

Postal rate increases are again on the national agenda and the time seems not far off when the four cent stamp for first class mail will do to the three cent stamp what it did to the two cent stamp. And it might be added, that chain reaction, as always, will be at the expense of he who takes pen in hand.

All will agree that in a world where all other costs continue to rise the postal department cannot be an exception, and each one to some extent can control his mailing budget by saying it more and better less often. But raises in the letter rate forever suggests a careful analysis of other postal services not so vital to human intercommunication, but sometimes more favored in the way of rate indulgences.

And along with rate raises the public too would welcome full light on any and all revenues received by the postal department, but diverted to the support of activities not strictly in the field of postal service. The temptation to dip into postal funds for other services prompts a dangerous excursion. It suggests the postage stamp as a tax rather than a receipt for a specific service to be performed.

Red-White-And-Blue Tape

A former Italian soldier has received word that his application for promotion to sergeant has been approved. The only hitch is that the ex-GI is now nearly 80 years old. He labored over the application back in 1898 and left the corps finally in disgust that his request was not acted upon. So when it came through, it was some 57-odd years late.

Considering the ways and working of most governmental processes in this country, we'd say this isn't too bad.

Private-Public Interests Close

WASHINGTON — When this column first disclosed, Sept. 1, that Peter Strobel was operating his own private engineering firm while handling building contracts for the government, Strobel wrote a letter of denial.

However, much of the information published in this column has now been confirmed under oath in hearings conducted by forthright Congressman Manny Celler, Democrat, of Brooklyn. Here is more on Strobel's interesting operations.

One name that crops up in checking his activities is Morton Blumenthal, former Secretary to Herbert Hoover. Blumenthal has powerful connections among Republicans and his name keeps popping up around Washington in connection with government contracts.

He is close to Strobel's engineering firm, Strobel and Saizman, and suggested deals which would be hepful. In return they tried to help him.

For instance, on Jan. 4, 1955, Blumenthal dropped around at the New York office of Strobel's firm and talked both with partner Joseph Salzman and Sol Schwarz, business manager. He dropped a friendly tip that they see the architectural firm of De Young and Moscowitz as soon as possible.

Schwarz and Salzman wasted no time. Next day, Jan. 5, they visited De Young and Moscowitz, who spoke of a contract for drawing the structural plans for the 112th street New York City housing project.

Partner Strobel was then in Washington supposedly devoting all his time to his country. However, Schwarz, who didn't seem to realize his boss was supposed to work only for Uncle Sam, sent him this report:

I went with J.S. this morning to De Young & Moscowitz (at their request) and met both of them. They told us they have a N.Y.C. housing job located at 112th St. between Park and 5th Avenues. They also stated that as far as they know there will be only one more housing job awarded this year. The allowance for structural engineering is $29,500 . . .

"So far as De Young & Moscowitz are concerned, I told them we were more interested in a private job rather than one for the city or the state." . . .

Five days later, Jan. 10, Schwartz sent another report to Strobel:

"I called Moscowitz this morning and told him their housing job would not fit into our program and he said he would get together with us on another job some time. I also called Blumenthal to tell him about it—and he told me he spoke to you Sunday evening—you said we would prefer not to take that job at this time."

Apparently this was wise strategy; for four months later they made a deal with De Young, Moscowitz and Rosenberg to participate in the construction of the New York City fashion institute. Mort Blumenthal had helped out on this one and the promised fee was $30,000.

BOB CONSIDINE

Give A Typewriter, Watch Them Work

NEW YORK—Lovers of good prose, poetry fans, psychologists, psychiatrists, collectors of Rabelaisian phrasing and bad spelling, and ordinary busy-bodies have discovered a new outdoor library at 560 Fifth Avenue in this here city now.

This is the address of the Olivetti people, the Italian business machine and typewriter company that has made a bold and colorful invasion of the American market. Mounted on a graceful green marble column, outside the showwindows, is one of those light little Olivetti portables. It is exposed at waist-height to tens of thousands of daily passers-by. An astounding number of people pause to tap out the thoughts, loves and rages possessing them at the moment.

First order of business around the Olivetti place each morning is to put the portable out and roll a fresh piece of paper into it. The man from Olivetti then disappears into his den of marble, poised machines and what-not, and the public takes over. By some alchemy I haven't cracked he then learns when the paper has been filled. He quickly slips out, harvests the sometimes demented words, rolls in a fresh bit of paper and scurries off with the filled sheet to an officer of the company who will not say just what he is going to do with this strange crop.

I hope Signor Olivetti will pardon me, if it is indeed he who harbors this cache, but I stole the 11 a.m. sheet yesterday. Just walked up to the machine, pushed aside a poet who was looking heavenward in search of a time iambic, tore the paper out of the machine and headed north in a 1923 Pierce Arrow with drawn blinds and muffled oars.

I didn't trust myself to look at the sheet until we passed Yonkers. Then I ordered the foot-pad at the wheel to turn into De Russy's lane, and slowly scanned the page. Here goes, and please Mr. Printer, let it run as the peepul wrote it:

"Bernard Strauss, Brooklyn. Love is a many Splendored Thing. In the morning mist two Lover's kissed and the world-stood still. Love is nature's way of giving. Today is sort of windy and cool but I like it fine. Do You like this cool wether? Oop's I spelled weather wrong!"

On the other side of the sheet a girl named Madeleine had tapped out her name and given her address as "000 Nothing Street, West Pacific Ocean." Then she wrote, "Now is the tie for allgi." Discouraged, she shifted gears into the red portion of the portable's ribbon and began "No is ty . . ." and apparently returned home. She may well have been a mermaid.

☆ ☆ ☆

One sensed a lost romance elsewhere on the page. A lost romance and maybe not a clement parting: "Dave is a . . . . . nsdfgb xcvbbughgh."

Dave, himself, may have stepped out of the faceless torrent of human beings a moment later. For the next line reads:

"Nacy Joan jfff fuffuf fuff."

Which would seem to take care of Nancy to the missing nth degree.

Jokes? Plenty. One that can be printed, but hardly understood, reads "So your wife enaged your new secretary, is she blond or brunette? neither. He is bald."

Don't miss it. New show every hour.

Kefauver Linked With Stevenson

WASHINGTON — The drive for a Stevenson-Kefauver ticket has echoed publicly now from the East and West coasts.

Governor George M. Leader of Pennsylvania called for it on a nationwide telecast. Leader's close political associate is James Finnegan of Philadelphia and it is practically settled that Finnegan will be Adlai Stevenson's campaign manager. Finnegan is reliably reported to have approved Leader's trial balloon.

The principal California leaders who are trying frantically to forclose a Stevenson slate of delegates to the nominating convention have proclaimed it the ideal ticket. Their purpose of course is to prevent a crashing primary battle which would damage their effort to carry the state in the general election.

Behind the scenes other important Democrats and some influential independents are urging that this solution should be accepted now by both Stevenson and Kefauver.

The proposed mating of Stevenson's intellectual appeal with Kefauver's intimate, personal touch has many merits. It has the further advantage for Stevenson that it should remove all doubts of whether he can get through the primaries unscathed. Practical realities still cannot be ignored.

Important political contests are like minuets and no prima donna, however glamorous, can safely seek to end the dance before the music starts. There are too many hopeful dancers who have their parts picked out and have practiced their steps. Each wants the form and pattern preserved because—who knows—the fickle public might like him best after all.

Stevenson and Kefauver must get along with the Democratic Congress. They may not like Senate Leader Lyndon Johnson's plans for a center coalition but that is irrelevant. He will still lead the Senate for six or seven vital months before the national convention meets and what he does will bear crucially on the general election. To antagonize him at this point would be folly.

The case of Sen. Hubert Humphrey represents another warning to the hopeful Stevenson fixers. Humphrey admits it would be just dandy to be vice president and he has just lined up Minnesota, so important in the troubled farm area, for Stevenson.

Politics in practice simply does not permit these nice, orderly arrangements which save everybody so much time and trouble. It is a tough business in which day-to-day developments inevitably separate the men from the boys.

Maggie Could Have Wed In Jefferson County

Autumn in Nebraska . . .

Month of Indian summer, mused the Fillmore County News, when a smoky haze fills the atmosphere . . . clumps of sumac flaunting their crimson beauty along the roadsides . . . milkweed pods and bittersweet berries adding their bit of beauty to the fall landscape . . . the green of wheat with the promise of another year's corp . . .

Indian summer . . . In Germany they call it "Old Woman's Summer" or St. Luke's Summer" . . . In England it is "St. Martin's Summer" or "All Hallow Summer" . . .

Walthill's Mrs. Helen Marr writes in mood of melancholy among the beauty of drifting leaves that seek the earth again with each passing breeze . . .

"There are dead leaves on sidewalks, in porch boxes, in birdbaths, on lawn chairs and benches . . . Like all things that live and grow, they have lived their cycle of life, and now, spent and useless, they drift earthward to lose their identity, and go back to Mother Earth from whence they came."

☆ ☆ ☆

Plymouth home-owners are busy with late season cleanup time around town, but R. E. Koepff says the village board is "sort of up the stump" for a place to dump the gathered junk, once it is collected. For many years there was a draw on a nearby farm that was used for such a purpose, but it eventually filled up and was covered with dirt. If any other kind-hearted landowner has such a draw, would be please notify the village clerk, asks Mr. Koepff. Such organized cleanup efforts are so much better than having each individual "haul little batches of junk all over the country."

☆ ☆ ☆

Jim Conway of Spalding has no patience with the "poets, would-be poets and just writers who rail about the beauties of spring." Because, he said, "There is no spring in Nebraska. Winter stays on and on with us, and then all at once it's summer . . ."

But autumn, now. There's a season . . . "Not too hot, not too cold . . . a tang in the air that comes at no other time . . . and football . . ."

Mrs. J. W. Tyler, writing in the Peru Pointer, brings out a grim bit of retribution from the discerning hand of Mother Nature . . .

"One of the giant variety of owls awakened us just before dawn a few mornings ago, putting a squirrel to death for his breakfast, and he did a long merciless job of it. The poor squirrel screamed and struggled in vain. However, we thought perhaps it might be the same squirrel that took the eggs out of our cardinal's nest just at hatching time last June . . ."

It's all over now, but Virg Hill of the Fairbury News still thinks that being a princess is a pretty tough job in Britain. Even if she had decided in favor of marriage, she probably would have been denied all the prenuptial showers so dear to a bride's heart. The Hill-topper was hoping Margaret would "tell the whole outfit to go jump in the lake and do what she wanted to do."

Nance County Journal Editor W. H. Plourd took note of an eminent biologist's example that size is not important. An ant, asserted the scientist, has more intelligence than a whale. "Maybe so," said Mr. Plourd, "but whales have better manners. They never show up picnic lunches."

And then he offered the hand of midwestern hospitality. If the princess couldn't solve her problems any other way, she could come here with her captain and gotten married in Jefferson County. "We would even have run her picture in The News and said she was a member of a prominent family."

And Arch Jarrell says in the Grand Island Independent: "Phoey on this hands-across-the-sea stuff! Great Britain has hiked the tariff on hydrazinocarbonylmethyltrimethylammonium chloride."

A Front-Porch Cure For The World's Ills

What America needs is more front porches. They're better than a mystery story to dull the sharp edges of the H-bomb headlines, and as good as an ocean cruise to wash away an attack of nerves. No war was ever started on a front porch.

The kind of front porches this country needs are not the little two-by-four platforms with just enough room for a foot scraper and a vacuum salesman to stand side by side, but the big old railed platforms where the families can gather in the dusk to watch the leaves dancing in the street lights and see the neighbors stroll by, and to let laziness seep into their bones.

Laziness in porch-sized doses is a medicine which would put more psychiatrists out of business than you could crowd into a year's statistics.

☆ ☆ ☆

One of the greatest follies of our age is a tendency to remove front porches from the older homes in the name of modernization, on the mistaken assumption that because most newer houses do not have them, they are undesirable. The real reason for the lack of porches on the newer models is that the people who pay for building the houses cannot afford them, with construction costs what they are.

To rip off a porch just because the Joneses don't have one is roughly comparable to shaving one's head because Mr. Smith is bald.

Modernity's compromise with the high cost of porches is the picture window. As windows go, the oversized glass is a tremendous improvement on anything which has gone before, being particularly good for watching what the neighbors are doing without seeming to pry, and even serving during the blustery months as a sort of poor substitute for a front porch, but did you ever sit in the middle of a picture window in a rocking chair and watch the world go by? It makes you feel like Whistler's mother in a gilt frame.

There is a freedom about front porches, and a warm, old-fashioned friendship which nothing else can replace. It brings the small sounds of ordinary living, the hum of neighbors' voices and the flutterings of the birds at dusk, the laughter of children and the rustle of the breeze in the high branches—these it blends and diffuses into drowsy comfort.

Friends stop and chat, and go their way without feeling rude that they do not stay longer, and others pause for a minute and stay for an hour, and you are under no compusion to be entertaining, because the porch and the evening are entertainment enough, but when they have gone you somehow feel that you know them better than ever before.

Perhaps a front porch is a relic of an older, more leisurely way of doing things. Maybe it has no place in a world of rush and flurry. Yet I cannot help the feeling that there would be less of strain and misunderstanding if more people spent more evenings on a big front porch.

You can get a better look from an old-fashioned front porch at the things that really count—the things like being contented.

There ought to be more front porches in America.

Voluntary Giving?

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The story of the dictatorial policy of Del Lienemann in regard to contributions to the United Community Chest Drive is illustrative of the perverted attitude of many department heads, not only in public office, but private industry as well, concerning contributions to the drive.

Charity is no longer a voluntary affair. To satisfy personal egos and to "keep up with the Joneses" many department heads set the amount an employe will give regardless of the employe's personal circumstances.

I have handled the contributions for employes of the company for which I work and we leave it up to the individual. We were given an excessively high quota—more than $15 per individual — and as a result did not meet the quota. The representative of the Chest was very insulting when he came to make collection. As far as I personally am concerned, I will contribute nothing to the Chest because of the attitude and the expensive cost of operation. I do make regular contributions to the individual agencies I believe worthy, to the amount I feel I can afford.

Hebron Measles Outbreak Subsiding

High School Hardest Hit

Lincoln Star Special

HEBRON, Neb. — An outbreak of measles that had approached epidemic proportions, together with four cases of scarlatina, a mild form of scarlet fever, seemed to be subsiding Wednesday, according to Hebron High School Supt. Richard Behrends.

During the week there have been 21 students out of high school with measles, and four with scarlatina, Supt. Behrends said. Only two cases of measles have been reported among grade school pupils, he added. There are 487 students enrolled in the Hebron schools.

The diseases seemed to be confined almost entirely to the high school.

Supt. Behrends warned that all students returning to school should first obtain clearance from their physician.

Cancellation of football practice earlier this week gave rise to rumors that Coach Ralph Moerer's football squad was hard hit by illness, but a check-up showed Jim Weber to be the only regular on the sick list.

However, a big question mark still surrounds the Wymore-Hebron football game, scheduled for Friday night on the local gridiron. Final decision regarding the game was postponed until Thursday noon, Supt. Behrends related, although he said it seemed likely the game would be played.

Story Uncovered Of Feud Between 2 Omaha Gangs

OMAHA (AP) — Authorities said Wednesday a Westside High School fracas that could have erupted into a vicious teen-age gang fight has its roots in incidents starting last summer.

Sheriff's deputies and Deputy County Attorney Tom Kelley said the story behind the trouble is being uncovered. A 16-year-old former Central High School student told officers an exchange last summer between a buddy of his and a Westside student led to a battle between antagonists from the two schools.

The feud continued and eventually word went out that gang warfare was set for Westside at its homecoming dance, the sheriff's office learned.

Officers stepped in and jailed 34 teen-agers after fights and vandalism broke out around the school during the dance. no formal charges have been filed so far.

French Assembly Gives Faure Vote Of Confidence On Advancing Election

PARIS (Thursday) (AP)—The National Assembly gave Premier Edgar Faure's government a vote of confidence early today on the issue of advancing the date for the next parliamentary elections. The vote was 330-211.

The government has called for a windup of the present parliament on Jan. 2. This would mean elections some time next month.

The voting previously had been scheduled for next June, the normal end of the Assembly's five-year term.

Faure won with the support of the Communist deputies in the chamber. First indications were that at least 80 of the 94 Communist members supported the government. Without them, Faure would have lost the vote and been forced to resign.

Senate Next

The bill now goes to the Council of the Republic, the upper house of Parliament. Under the latest interpretation of parliamentary rules, the Senate will have to approve or reject the measure before the end of next week.

The government's request for urgent assembly consideration of the measure also will apply to the Council of the Republic, sources said.

The vote came after five hours of stormy discussion in the Assembly. Faure's eventual victory appeared assured early in the debate when Jacques Duclos, Communist parliamentary leader, announced the Reds would support the government on this issue.

Party Desire

Duclos said this decision should not be taken to mean Communist approval of Faure's regime but was an expression of the party's desire for early elections.

The Premier has insisted December elections are necessary because of grave decisions that must be taken early next year, especially on France's relations with its troubled North African territories.

Such decisions, he said, could not be properly weighed by an Assembly that had one eye cocked on an upcoming campaign.

3rd Largest

The Communists have the third largest bloc of votes in the Assembly. Only the Socialists, with 105 seats, and the Radical Socialists (moderates) and allied groups with 100 are larger.

Of the other seats, 85 are held by members or allies of the Catholic MRP, 72 by the Gaullists, and 70 by various groups of independents.

The Republican and Social Actionists, a Gaullist splinter group, claims 33 seats, the Independent Peasants 28 and the Peasant party 22. The rest of the 627 seats are divided among several tiny factions.

B. F. Goodrich Discovery Reduces Skidding . . .
Now get greatly increased stopping power . . . surer traction . . . with your present tires! Even on roads made slippery by rain, ice or snow.
B. F. Goodrich has developed a unique method of cross cutting your tires which produces thousands of flexible grip-blocks that act like gripping fingers on the road.
Stopping ability is increased by as much as 30%. Traction for starting and acceleration is greater too!
Tests show that B. F. Goodrich cross cutting also increases tire mileage. That's because the grip-blocks have a "walking" action that reduces scuffing.

City Caught By Trend Toward 12-Volt Auto System

The city was caught Wednesday just a step behind modern trends and it may cost taxpayers several hundreds of dollars.

A bid of $7,697.10 was received by the city for the purchase of five cruisers for the Police Department. Submitting the only bid was O'Shea-Rogers.

No other dealer could submit a bid since all city automobiles operate on a 6-volt electrical system. With the exception of O'Shea's, other companies do not carry automobiles with a 6-volt system.

Thus, the city must either change over its radio and accessory light system to 12 volts or take bids from on company only. O'Shea's bid was $197.10 over the city's estimate of cost for the equipment.

According to City Purchasing Agent Wayne Harvey, the cost of converting the city's automotive system to 12 volts would be about $60 to $100 per unit or a total cost of about $2,000. This cost, he said, must now be weighed against the advantage of receiving competitive bidding.

Retired Cook Peter Will Dies

Peter J. Will, a resident of Lincoln for 40 years, died Wednesday at the age of 70. His home was at 822 Y.

Mr. Will

Mr. Will was born in Switzerland and came to America in 1907. He was a retired cook and a member of the Welfare Society.

Surviving are his wife, Mollie; four daughters, Mrs. James Feil of Palo Alto, Calif., Mrs. Harold Sherman, Mrs. Melvin Erickson and Mrs. Ervin Kraft, all of Lincoln; sons, Joe and Reifert, both of Lincoln; brother, Henry of California, and a sister, Mary Will of Switzerland and 10 grandchildren.

Past Matrons Club — Husbands of the club members will be guests of the Lincoln Past Matrons Club at a covered dish dinner at Starcraft Chapter, 27th and B, at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 4. Dr. Carl M. Davidson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will be guest speaker.

Cotner And O Shops Zoning To Be Talked

A hearing will be held by the City Planning Commission on Nov. 9 on a second application for a change in zoning to permit establishment of a large shopping center near Cotner and O.

The application is filed by Max Taylor, owner of the land on O running east 900 feet from Cotner between O and L. The center is to be developed by Loomis & Johnson.

The 900 by 1,300 foot tract is primarily residential at this time with the request made for a change to business zoning.

The Commission, by a split vote, approved a change at its last meeting from residential to business zoning of property along O from 53rd to 55th to permit construction of a shopping center. This change has now been approved by the City Council also.

POSTCARD

In eight hours of flying time, you can cross a lot of territory. But it is terribly hard on your living. The time difference from west coast to New York is three hours.

I have been going to bed at midnight. But since it is only 9 o' clock on the coast, I tossed and turned and stared out at the East river and tried to think serene thoughts.

Nothing. I was wide awake. Hungry, too. I am a great patronizer of the all-night restaruants. The other night I read that TV has a new program to put you to sleep. It is called "Count Sheep With Nancy Berg." She has a sponsor —guess what. Mattresses.

Miss Berg wants to be an actress. She is 5 feet 7½ inches, 24 years old and has been going to a psychoanalyst since she was 19.

The TV people looked over these qualifications and decided she was just the person to put people to sleep. I think this is why they say TV is in its infancy.

Miss Berg shows up in a nightie and gets into bed. She talks about her dog Fido — spelled Phaedeaux. You have to see this to believe it.

Her press agent says once she put her finger through a pizza, put the pizza on a record player and what comes out but Dean Martin singing "That's Amore."

This is supposed to put people to sleep. It would keep me awake all night. Just thinking about it.

The program goes off the air with sheep jumping over a fence and Miss Berg counting "one, two three, fooouuuurr, yawn, fiiiivvvve . . ."

☆ ☆ ☆

Well, this is a curious way to go to sleep. And has at least given me something to think about these sleepless nights.

While the TV people in New York have been working with Miss Nancy, Dr. Nathaniel Kleitman has been studying 6800 nights' sleep at the University of Chicago.

This is the scientific approach. And I have spent several sleepless nights studying it.

Dr. Kleitman says the main thing is to go to bed at the same time every night and get up at the same time every morning.

Here in New York over on West 45th, there is a Lewis and Conger Sleep Shop. All sorts of gadgets to make you go to sleep. They recommend a bath at 100 degrees to which you add: one tablespoon of dried mustard, one small part of pine essence.

It sounds a good deal like salad dressing to me. But they say this is the McCoy. They also recommend wrapping your head in a towel dipped in ice water.

Nurses Dorm Bids Opening To Be Dec. 8

Bids will be opened Dec. 8 for a new dormitory for nurses at the hospital for tuberculosis at Kearney, the Board of Control announced Wednesday.

Estimated cost of the project is $120,000.

The structure will be two stories, brick masonry, and approximately 34 by 142 feet in dimension.

It will provide 17 single rooms, each with bath, and one unit of two rooms sharing a bath.

The present 70-year-old home for nurses at the institution is a frame residence purchased by the state in 1916.

COMPLETE SERVICE DEPARTMENT

The fleet of ATLAS STORES service trucks plus the expert workmanship of specialized mechanics make the ATLAS SERVICE the most complete possible.

Congratulations

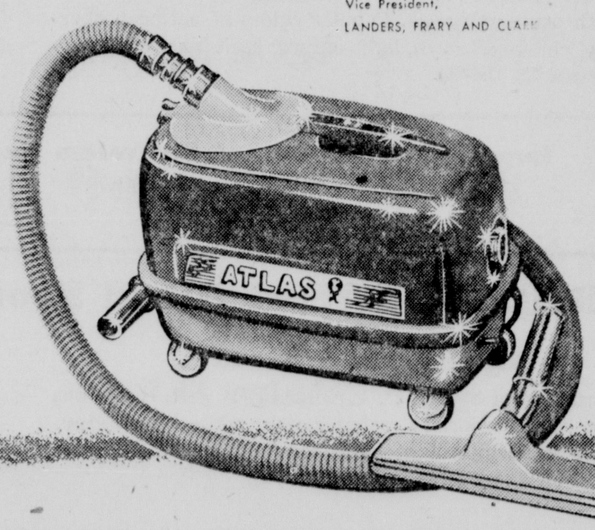
new ATLAS LINCOLN STORE

During the past ten years that ATLAS SEWING CENTERS have sold our cleaners, we have watched them grow from one of our smaller dealers . . . to our largest. But the growth alone is not significant. The significant factor is the high standards of business ethics, consumer relationship, and sound business policy that has always accompanied the ATLAS operation. Therefore, it is my great personal pride to know that ATLAS SEWING CENTERS will represent our firm in the Lincoln market. And we wish them continued success in the years to come.

Lee Moss
Vice President,
LANDERS, FRARY AND CLARK



For the Housewife who wants more power . . . more suction . . . more service from her vacuum cleaner, ask for the cleaner manufactured by Landers, Frary and Clark.

The new ATLAS MONARCH Vacuum Cleaner, sold exclusively in Lincoln by ATLAS SEWING CENTERS, is one of the finest cleaners money can buy. There's no fumbling for controls . . . nothing to take apart . . . no top to lift off. Complete with full set of Servatools for all types of cleaning. Its simplicity makes cleaning a pleasure.

High School Press Meet Expects 400

The Nebraska High School Press Association's annual convention will see more than 400 high school journalists attending the meeting at the University of Nebraska Friday and Saturday.

Workshops, contests and presentation of special awards will highlight meetings to be held at the Student Union.

The convention will open with a convocation at 10 a.m. Friday. Edgar Apking, business manager of the Ord Quiz and director of the Nebraska Press Association, will be the featured speaker.

Star and Journal Keys

Dr. William F. Swindler, director of the University School of Journalism, will award the 1955 Gold Keys presented by The Lincoln Star and The Lincoln Journal to the five outstanding first-year students in the school.

Friday morning workshop leaders will be: Mrs. Edith Douthit, Curtis, newspapers (news); Mrs. Helen Lewis, Hastings, newspapers (business); Irene Martin, Lincoln, yearbooks (editorial and pictures), and Hattie Steinberg, York, yearbooks (business).

New NHSPA officers will be elected at the Friday noon advisers' luncheon. Mrs. Florence Barta, Nebraska City, is now president.

Special Paper

Selected high schoolers Friday afternoon will hlep put out a special issue of the Nebraskan, University student newspaper.

Students also will take part in the 19 journalism contests conducted by the University chapters of Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional jouranlism fraternity, and Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalistic fraternity.

Dr. Walter K. Beggs, chairman of the University Council for Community Study, will be guest speaker at the 6:30 p.m. banquet.

Gunnar Horn, Omaha Benson High School faculty member, will moderate the advisers' workshop on newspapers at 9 a.m. Saturday. Miss Steinberg will moderate the yearbooks workshop.

Convention Climax

The Saturday noon awards luncheon will climax the convention.

Marilyn Mitchell, University senior from Omaha, president of Theta Sigma Phi, and Charles Beal, senior from Broken Bow, president of Sigma Delta Chi, will present certificates of award to contest winners.

Kathleen Nosky, University senior from North Platte, president of Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary, will present the Nebraska chapter's award for promotional advertising.

The Grand Island Independent trophy will be presented for the best yearbook in a large school and the Scottsbluff Star-Herald trophy for the best yearbook in a smaller school.

Three Omaha World-Herald plaques will be awarded by Al Frisbie, the newspaper's youth activities director. These will be given to the best printed paper in a large school, best printed paper in a small school and best mimeographed paper.

Schools to be represented at the convention will include:

Auburn, Beatrice, Bellevue, Blair, Columbus, Creighton, Curtis School of Agriculture, Fairbury, Grand Island, Hastings, Holdrege, Lincoln, Marshall, Lincoln, Lincoln East, Lincoln Cathedral, McCook, Nebraska City, North Platte, Omaha Central, Omaha Benson, Omaha North, Omaha South, Orchard, St. Bonaventure of Columbus, St. Joseph of York, St. Lodger of Creighton, St. Patrick of Fremont, Scottsbluff, Superior, Sutton, Tekamah, Walton and York.

Atom Experts To Address Nuclear Meet

The Nuclear Energy Institute of the University of Nebraska Dec. 1 and 2 will feature national authorities on the peacetime and practical use of nuclear energy, Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin announced Wednesday.

The Institute, directed primarily to Nebraska management, will present up-to-date information on the immediate and future use of nuclear energy.

The conference, one of the first of its kind to be held in the Midwest, will be sponsored by the Nebraska Resources Division, Associated Industries of Nebraska, and the University of Nebraska Extension Division.

Dr. Hardin said that topics for discussion will include the use of isotopes and their application in food processing, food preservation.

The speakers will be nationally known specialists in government, economics, manufacturing, and research. Efforts are now being made to obtain speakers who participated in the recent Atomic Energy Conference in Geneva, Switzerland, Dr. Hardin said.

Nathan J. Gold, of Lincoln, chairman of the Nebraska Resources Foundation, said although the Institute is being especially planned for Nebraska management, its results will benefit the entire state. "The Institute will not be highly technical. It will present practical, interesting, frctual data on what is being done today and what will be accomplished tomorrow."

"We believe that management wi. be challenged by the new opportunities presented in this conference, and we feel confident they will find expanding horizons for their business and its future profit."

Nebraska Farm Prices Fall Off 3.7 Pct.

Index Lowest Since June '46

Prices received by Nebraska farmers for the things they produce fell off 3.7 per cent during the month ending Oct. 15, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported Wednesday.

Sagging prices on hogs, cattle and corn were largely to blame for dropping the index to its lowest level since June of 1946, the agency said.

It's not the severest monthly decline of the year, however. From June 15 to July 15 there was a 5.7 per cent drop. Two months ago the index managed a slight increase.

The Nebraska decline of 3.7 per cent last month compares with a national drop of 2 per cent.

The mid-October Nebraska index stood at 236 per cent of the 1909-14 average, compared with 259 a year earlier.

Grain Prices Rise

There were small price increases during the month on wheat, oats, rye, hay, soybeans, calves, wholesale milk, turkeys and eggs, but these weren't enough to offset the other declines.

The all crops index dropped 7 points to 217, and the livestock and livestock products index dropped 10 points to 243.

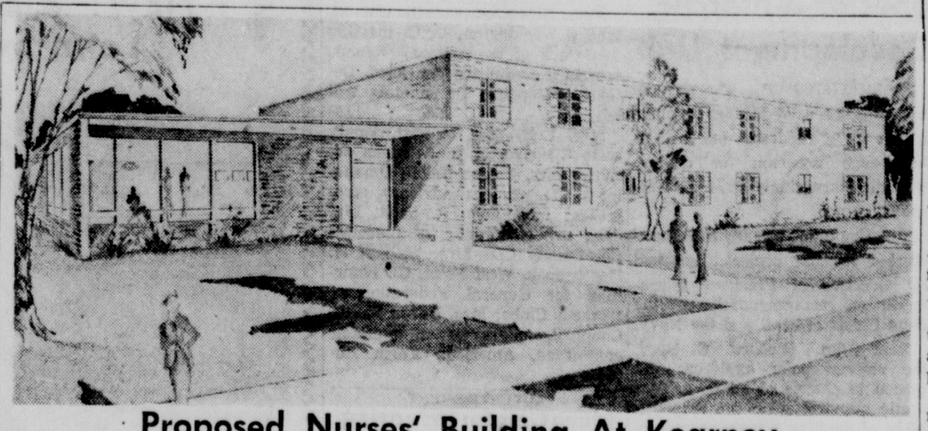
Hog prices, which have been a princcipal concern to Nebraska farmers, dropped from an average of $15.90 per 100 pounds in mid-September to $14.30 in mid-October—the lowest price since June of 1946.

Beef cattle at $17.50 per hundredweight declined 40 cents for the month, although calves turned sharply higher to $18.00.

Potato prices took about the worst beating. The mid-October average of 65 cents a bushel was nearly one-third lower than a month earlier, when the late crop had not yet begun moving.

Here are average mid-October prices in Nebraska on commodities the farmer sells, with the change from a month earlier:

Wheat—$1.96 a bushel, unchanged for the month.
Corn—$1.34, down 11 cents.
Oats—64 cents, up 2 cents.
Barley—93 cents, down 2 cents.
Rye—97 cents, up 10 cents.
Grain sorghum—$1.80 per cwt., down 10 cents.
Potatoes—65 cents a bushel, down 30 cents.
All baled hay—$20 a ton, up 50 cents.
Baled alalfa hay—$20.40, up 80 cents.
Baled wild hay—$19.70, down 10 cents.
Dry edible beans — $5.90 per cwt., down 10 cents.
Alfalfa seed — $18 per cwt., unchanged.
Soybeans—$1.98 a bushel, up 3 cents.
Hogs — $14.30 per cwt., down $1.60.
Cattle—$17.50, down 40 cents.
Calves—$18, up $1.60.
Sheep—$4.50, up 20 cents.
Lambs—$18.50, down 30 cents.
Milk cows—$145 per head, up $5.
Butterfat—55 cents a pound, unchanged.
Wholesale milk — $4.55 per cwt. (preliminary), up 15 cents.
Retail milk—19.4 cents a guart, unchanged.
Chickens—16.3 cents a pound, down .7 cents.
Turkeys — 32 cents a pound, up 2 cents.
Eggs—29.3 cents a dozen, up 1.1 cent.



Proposed Nurses' Building At Kearney

The new quarters for nurses at the Kearney Tuberculosis Hospital will consist of a two-story, brick masonry type structure, to house 17 nurses. The structure is expected to cost about $120,000. Story on Page 9.

Nebraskan Given 2-Year Term In Federal Prison

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Alvin C. Lung, 19, Kearney, Neb., was sentenced in Federal Court to two years in a federal prison for bringing watches into the United States from Canada without declaring them to customs officials.

The youth admitted he bought several hundred Swiss watches at $4.50 each and used them as bait to obtain advances of $15 to $35 from filling stations by pledging them, one by one, as security for gasoline and cash.

He said he and his young wife, traveled in nearly every state, using the racket to obtain funds.

Extension Contest Winners Announced At State Meeting

During Wednesday's session of the annual conference for extension workers of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, winners of the 1955 extension information contest were announced.

The conference opened Wednesday with near 150 attending. Wes Antes of the University of Nebraska talked to the group on the possibilities of a 4-H foundation with funds being used for 4-H activities and camps. Others speaking were Otto Croy and Francis Scudder, both of the U. S. Extension services.

Here are the contest winners, listed with their county:

Only East Showing Hesitancy In Salk Vaccine Use—O'Connor

OMAHA (AP)—The public's confidence in the Salk anti-polio vaccine has been restored "to a very large extent," President Basil O'Connor of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said Wednesday.

Only on the eastern seaboard is there still any hesitancy in its use, he said.

He blamed "a lot of fine and distinguished people who didn't know anything about it" for causing the public to lose faith in the vaccine.

After several persons who had received the vaccine got polio last summer, these people "jumped in and asked a lot of questions as if they hadn't been raised before," O'Connor said.

They raised the possibilities of live virus in the vaccine, of possible kidney trouble and other eventualities.

"But the scientists had carefully gone over all those things during the 1954 field trials," O'Connor said.

Even many of the nation's doctors expressed doubt about the vaccine, implying they didn't know much about it.

But, O'Connor said, "never has the entire medical profession been as well advised on anything as it has been on polio vaccine research."

The foundation decided last summer to let time wear off the public's apprehension, "and it has to a large extent."

3 Lincoln Youths Stiffly Fined For Beatings

Three Lincoln youth's were "treated" with stiff fines Wednesday in Lancaster County Court on assault and battery charges resulting from Halloween night beatings.

Ronald Peet, 17, of 1805 No.24th was fined $300 in the beating o. a Raymond youth and Ronald Harrison, 18, of Colton, Calif., was fined $75 in the same assault.

County Judge Herbert Ronin called the beating of Robert VanArsdall, 18, of Raymond with a homemade sap "very serious."

Peet admitted having the weapon—fashioned from a length of rubber hose with a steel bolt inserted at one end and taped—at the fight scene and owning it since September.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Johnson, who investigated the Raymond incident, said VanArsdall was slugged with the weapon, was kicked by the boys when he was on the ground and was left unconscious.

VanArsdall is recovering at a Lincon hospital from head lacerations and bruises.

Deputy County Attorney Dale Fahrnbruch said VanArsdall was jumped by the group after one of the youth claimed he was hit earlier by the victim.

A fourth youth, Frank Harms, 20, of 1328 K has pleaded innocent of the assault on VanArsdall. His trial was set for Nov. 12 and bond was set at $300.

Harry Russell, 26, of Riverside, Calif., a traveling companion of Harrison, was fined $50 for disturbing the peace of Ernie's Tavern at Raymond.

Russell admitted inducing VanArsdall to step outside the tavern where the victim was jumped by the others. Russell denied participating in the fight, allegedly provoked by an argument between VanArsdall and one of the youths earlier.

The third Lincoln youth, Dale Jones of 1344 A, was fined $75 after he admitted striking Leonard Swanson, 19, of Rt. 1 in a fight near the Runza Hut, west of Lincoln.

Leonard and his brother, Howard, 17, received bruises in separated fights with members of theg roup, according to Johnson.

The county attorney's office released another teen-age youth who did not participate in the fights.

Ex-Bee Reporter Ralph Coniston, 49, Dies In N.Y. City

Ralph A. Coniston, 49, former reporter for the Omaha Bee, died in New York City recently.

Coniston was born in Omaha and graduated from the University of Nebraska. Before World War II, he worked on several New York newspapers and as a free-lance writer. He was a correspondent of The New York Times in Java in 1945-46.

Coniston was the author of "The Future of Freedom in the Orient," published in 1947. His fiction appeared in Colliers and Holiday magazines. He also wrote numerous articles on medical subjects.

Blast Kills 6

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A privately owned explosives and powder factory in Serres blew up Wednesday, killing 6 persons and injuring 90. The explosion wrecked a block of buildings in the central Macedonian town.

New President

U.S. Will Set Up Special Antarctic Development Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) —The government disclosed Wednesday it plans to set up a separate unit with a long-range program for dealing with the increasingly strategic Antarctic region.

Tenative plans already have been started for the project, launched by direction of President Eisenhower on recommendation of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Navy.

Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd, the veteran polar explorer, was placed in charge of all U. S. Antarctic activities with the responsibility of drafting a permanent program. One possibility for the future was the staking of U. S. claims to territory, a step consistently avoided in the past.

Byrd, although retired from active duty, is about to leave once again for the bottom of the globe as officer in charge of an expedition.

OTOE VEHICLE ASSESSMENTS TO GET PROBE

The State Tax Commissioner's office plans to check motor vehicle assessments in Otoe County, Commissioner Fred Herrington said Wednesday.

He said the check was decided upon after receipt of "some tips."

He said he had noticed published reports that the Douglas County Board had questioned Watson Bros. as to why the trucking firm's equipment was assessed in Otoe County rather than in Douglas County, where the firm's terminal is located.

The company representative's reply to the Douglas County officials was that there is "better service" in Otoe County.

"We want to find out why," Herrington commented.

"There may be some others assessing their stuff down there," he added.

After the Otoe County check, other counties may be checked, but Herrington did not name them.

Deputy Commissioner Wilbur Houtchens, and possibly also Herrington himself, will make the Otoe County check.

WHAT A MORNING--FOR NEWS!

WHAT a morning! There's news everywhere about everybody—or so it seems—news of guests—news of parties—news of travelers — news of brides-elect—in fact everywhere we turned there was news—

Think we'll start the day with news of guests—Mr. and Mrs. J. Byron Koontz of Brownwood, Tex., for instance, who are arriving on Friday to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. George G. Swingle—

Early Saturday morning Mr. Swingle and Mr. Koontz will be off and away to Red Deer Hunting Lodge—but the distaff side of both families will skip the hunting and turn their attention to a bit of trekking about town. The hunters will return on Friday, Nov. 11—and the week-end will be well filled with courtesies for the visitors.

* * *

AND coming from Grand Island to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie I. Wright will be Mr. Wright's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wright.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wright will entertain their guests at the 100 Club dinner dance, and preceding the party will be host and hostesses at an hors d' oeuvres affair at their home.

* * *

HEARD that Sgt. and Mrs. Hugh Williams and their young son, David, will be in town this week end—the guests of Mrs. Williams' parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Marshall Neely.

* * *

THEN we learned that Mrs. L. D. Lampert and her two children, Ann and Peter, will be arriving from Idaho Falls, Ida., on Friday morning, to spend several days in Lincoln as the house guests of Mr. Lampert's mother, Mrs. W. H. Linn, and Dr. Linn.

* * *

AND expected from Washington D. C. on Saturday will be Mrs. Lampert's mother, Mrs. Walter J. Gardner, who will visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lawrence, and spend some time with old Lincoln friends.

Hear that Col. Gardner will arrive from Washington a bit later, and that from Lincoln the Gardner family will go on to the west coast to reside.

* * *

THE bride-elect we had in mind this morning is Miss Phyllis Colbert whose marriage to Lt. Charles Hunley takes place on Dec. 27.

On Saturday Miss Colbert will share honors with Miss Judy Flansburg, who is to marry Robert Burton on Dec. 17, when Miss Sue Jouvenat entertains at luncheon at her home. Following luncheon the time will be spent informally and each of the brides-elect will be presented with a hostess gift.

* * *

ON Saturday evening Miss Colbert will again be an honoree when Mr. and Mrs. John Schofield are a dinner host and hostess at their home. The guest list will include only members of the families.

* * *

BUT Miss Colbert is to turn the tables and be in the hostess role on Sunday morning when she honors Miss Flansburg at a morning coffee at her home.

To Be November Bride

MISS SHIRLEY PERKINS

Announcement is made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Perkins of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Shirley, to Clarence Honvlez, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Honvlez of Denton.

The wedding will take place on Saturday morning, Nov. 26, and the ceremony will be solemnized at St. Mary's Church in Denton.

Miss Perkins is a former student at the University of Nebraska.

PTA's Plan Activities

The executive board members of SARATOGA PTA met at the school Tuesday morning to discuss program plans for the year. Mrs. John Schick, president, conducted the meeting and reports were given by committee chairmen.

At the recent meeting of the room mothers, plans were made for a bake sale to raise funds for PTA projects. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. L. P. McLarty, Mrs. John Waybright and Mrs. Max Ehrlich.

Members of ELLIOTT PTA will observe American Education Week by holding a series of group meetings for parents in their children's classrooms. Programs for the meetings have been planned by the room mothers and faculty.

The series began Wednesday, Nov. 2, when parents of 3rd graders (with the exception of room 202) met at 2 o'clock at the school. On Tuesday, Nov. 8, parents of 6th graders will meet at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and parents of Miss Robert's kindergarten pupils will meet at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Continuing the series will be the following meetings for parents: Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2nd grade and 3rd grade of room 202, 2 o'clock, and Mrs. Steinacher's kindergarten, 7:30 o'clock; Monday, Nov. 14, 5th grade, 2:20 o'clock; Tuesday, Nov. 15, 4th grade, 2 o'clock; Wednesday, Nov. 16, 1st grade, 2 o'clock; and Thursday, Nov. 17, special education class, 1:45 o'clock.

PTA District Directors

At the annual fall series of district conferences, sponsored by the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers, six new directors were named at district elections.

The new director of District I will be Mrs. Robert Moore of Peru, and director of District II for the coming year will be Mrs. Gordon Lozier of Omaha.

Other new directors are Mrs. Sam Blatt, Columbus, District V; Mrs. Merton Whitcomb, Hastings, District VIII; Mrs. F. W. Barnes, Chadron, District X; and Mrs. Merle Dart, Enders, District XII.

Recently named to the board of managers of the state congress was Mrs. James J. Carney of Fremont who will serve as editor of the Nebraska Parent-Teacher.

The Brides' Book Says:

Revealing plans for a late November wedding is Miss Dolores Ehrlich, who will become the bride of Larry G. Davis on Saturday, Nov. 26. The ceremony will be solemnized at 8 o'clock in the evening and will take place at Vine Congregational Church.

For her maid of honor, Miss Ehrlich has named Miss Alberta Womack, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Shirley Brolliar, Miss Janice Yost of Milford, and Miss Mary Kay DeVries of Douglas. Lighting the candles for the service will be Miss Barbara Church and Miss Jerry Ann Iseman.

Lanny Davis will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers will be Howard Brown, David Dreith and Jerry Rocke.

A popular November bride-to-be is Miss Evelyn Nietenstein who this morning is announcing the members of her wedding party for her marriage to Lyle L. Meyer on Sunday, Nov. 20.

The maid of honor will be Miss Ruth Heins, and attending Miss Nietenstein as bridesmaids will be Miss Marilyn Meyer, sister of the bridegroom-elect, Miss Kathleen Keefe and Miss Patricia Adams. Miss Patricia Hellerich will be the flower girl and Douglas Meyer, also a brother of Mr. Meyer, will be ringbearer.

Lighting the candles for the 7 o'clock evening ceremony, which will be solemnized at Zion Lutheran Church, will be Miss Mary Barnes and Miss Carol Rohrig.

Eldon Meyer will serve his brother as best man, and the corps of ushers will include Stanley Settjs, Kermit Risch, Marlin Reuter, Bernard Becker and Noel Meyer, a cousin of the bridegroom-elect.

Last Sunday afternoon, the bride-to-be was honored at a miscellaneous shower held at the church parlors in Humphrey where Mrs. Herman Meyer, Mrs. Herman Reuter and Mrs. Herman Goeller were co-hostesses to 65 guests.

Also included among recent courtesies for Miss Nietenstein were the shower for which Mrs. Louis Nietenstein was hostess at her home to 25 guests, and the informal party given by Mrs. Herman Vollstedt and her daughter, Miss Elda Vollstedt.

Miss Gloria Ann Byers, whose betrothal to Thomas Gibson of Independence, Mo., was revealed recently, has announced that her wedding will be an event of Sunday, Nov. 13. The service will be solemnized at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Attending the bride-to-be as maid of honor will be Miss Donna Hankins, and the matron of honor will be Mrs. Chris Madsen. Miss Bonita Gates will be the bridesmaid, and lighting the candles preceding the ceremony will be Miss Cheryl Woulf and Gary Nelson, brother of the bride-elect.

Leroy Roth will serve Mr. Gibson as best man, and seating the guests will be Gordon Madsen, Chris Madsen and Ronald Jensen.

Miss Byers was the honoree recently when Miss Donna Hankins, Mrs. George Gates and her daughter, Miss Bonita Gates, entertained 45 guests at the Gates' home. The evening hours were spent informally and a kitchen shower was presented to the bride-to-be. Also a recent hostess for Miss Byers was Mrs. Kenneth Kersey who entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home.

The marriage of Miss Joan Aspegren and Dwaine Eugene Kohout of Lincoln will be solemnized on Sunday, Nov. 27, at the Lutheran Church in Saronville.

The bride-elect has chosen for her maid of honor Miss Charlotte Brown of Lincoln, sister of Mr. Kohout, and the bridesmaid will be Miss Frances Sorensen, also of Lincoln. Miss Carolyn Gerner, cousin of the bridegroom-elect, will be the flower girl, and lighting the candles for the 7 o'clock evening service will be Miss Carolyn Aspegren, cousin of the bride-to-be, and Herbert Aspegren, Miss Aspegren's brother.

Leroy Gerner will serve his nephew as best man, and the ushers will be Arling Gerner, also an uncle of Mr. Kohout, Paul Kilzer and the bride-elect's brothers, Arnold Aspegren, Burnell Aspegren and Percy Aspegren.

Square Dance Club To Meet

The Singer-Swinger Square Dance Club will meet on Friday evening at the Randolph School. There will be a class for beginners at 7:30 o'clock, and the square dancing is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

In charge of the arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kipper, Miss Jeannette Mathiesen, and Miss Eunice Preston.

Home-School Association To Have Dance

The members of the Holy Family Home-School Association are sponsoring a football dance to be held on Friday evening in the basement of Holy Family School.

Arranging the affair, which begins at 9 o'clock, is a committee composed of Jack Reams, chairman; Frank Zajic, Bob Wilson and Mrs. Edna Hartz.

Belmont Club Plans Meeting

The members of the Belmont Garden Club will meet at the Belmont Center at 7:30 o'clock on Friday evening when the Rev. Quincy Murphrey will show films of wild flowers in Alaska.

A special feature of the meeting will be the Thanksgiving table arrangements.

Former Coed Is Bride

The marriage of Miss Jacquelyn Ann Svendsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eiler H. Svendsen of Nelson, to Henry Wehrman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wehrman, also of Nelson, was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 2, at the First Presbyterian Church in Nelson. The lines of the 2:30 o'clock ceremony were read by the Rev. Henry Warren before a background of lavender chrysanthemums and lighted candles. Mrs. E. P. McDonald, aunt of the bridegroom, played the wedding music and also accompanied the vocal soloist, Miss Mary Lou House.

The attendants, Mrs. Gary Whitely, the matron of honor; Miss Mary Sue Herbek of Lincoln, and Miss Yvonne Tevebaugh of Lexington, the bridesmaids, appeared in alike frocks of purple crystalette and carried nosegays of lavender tone carnations frilled with white lace. The Misses Barbara and Janice Drexel, nieces of the bridegroom, lighted the candles.

J. Philip Wehrman served his cousin as best man, and the ushers were John C. Wehrman, also a cousin of the bridegroom; Michael Drexel, Clark Drexel, Ken Wehrman, and Edward Svendsen, brother of the bride.

The bride appeared in a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The long sleeved bodice was fashioned with an illusion yoke which was patterned with lace applique and the wide skirt was completed with a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a cap of lace and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis frilled with lace.

After the reception, held in the church parlors, Mr. Wehrman and his bride left for a honeymoon trip through the Ozarks, and now are at home on a farm near Nelson. For traveling Mrs. Wehrman wore a beige suit with matching accessories.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wehrman are former students at the University of Nebraska.

Planned Benefit

The committee in charge of arrangements for the Junior Woman's Club benefit luncheon and bridge at Hillcrest Club on Wednesday afternoon probably took a bow at the close of the day. The committee's efforts were highly successful if one could judge from the large attendance on hand.

The proceeds from the benefit go towards the Junior group's projects fund.

Deans Plan Convention

The annual convention of the Nebraska Association of Deans of Women and Advisers of Girls will be held Saturday at Concordia Teachers College, Seward.

Opening at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, the one-day meeting will feature a talk by Miss Mildred Fox, college consultant for the Evanston, Ill., Township High School.

Miss Willa Koenig, Concordia College registrar and president of the association, will preside at the convention which also will include sectional meetings for high school and for college counselors and deans.

ESA Chapter Has Breakfast

The members of Zeta Alpha Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority entertained at breakfast Sunday morning at the Hotel Cornhusker honoring the chapter's new pledges.

Included among those honored were Miss Mavis Bryceson, Miss Marjorie Riddle, Miss Carol Sabata, Miss Pat Miller and Miss Twila Schneider.

BSP Chapter Holds Meeting

At their Friday evening meeting, held in the chapter rooms, the members of Alpha Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi heard a talk on Famous Friendships which was given by Mrs. Albert G. Pekar.

Mrs. John O. Roux, vice president of the group, presided at the business meeting, and serving as hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. A. E. Hart and Mrs. Myron D. White.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. W. L. Schmieding, Mrs. William Hendrickson, Mrs. Joe H Thompson, and Mrs. Robert K. Shipley.

We Hear That

Arriving in Lincoln Tuesday, on a combined business and pleasure trip are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howett of Holland, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Howett will remain in Lincoln for about a week as the guests of Mrs. Howett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Westcott. Mrs. Howett will be remembered as the former Patricia Westcott.

★

Lt. (JG) and Mrs. F. Morris Anderson will arrive in Lincoln today for a very brief visit with Lt. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude S. Anderson. Lt. and Mrs. Anderson are en route from White Sands, N. M., where the navy officer has been stationed, to his new assignment with the Navy Bureau of Ordnance, Washington, D.C.

★

Mrs. Hans J. Egger left on Wednesday morning for South Bend, Ind., where she will join Mr. Egger and where they will reside. Miss Sharon Egger will remain in Lincoln to complete her senior year at the University of Nebraska, where she is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, but will go to South Bend to spend the holidays with her parents.

Prior to Mrs. Egger's departure for South Bend she was honored at numerous informal courtesies.

Explosion Is Probed In UAL Crash

LONGMONT, Colo. (AP) — United Air Lines Wednesday engaged an explosives expert to investigate the crash of a New York-to-Seattle DC-6B near here Tuesday night with the loss of 44 lives.

UAL President W. A. Patterson said in a statement released at the airline offices in Chicago, "All evidence now strongly indicates this accident resulted from an explosion in the air."

This action came as government investigators sought to determine whether "remedial action" should be taken immediately in this area as a result of the disaster. It was the second crash near Denver in less than four weeks and the fourth UAL crash on the same route in 10 years with a total loss of 180 lives.

Fell In Flames

All aboard the plane were killed Tuesday night when the aircraft appeared to explode and fell in flames a few minutes after taking off from Denver.

On Oct. 6, a United DC-4 smashed into Medicine Bow Peak in southern Wyoming, killing 66 persons in the nation's worst commercial aviation disaster.

Patterson's statement said:

"Determination of responsibility for the accident is beyond the authority of United Air Lines alone. Federal and local officials are now working at the scene."

Reverberation

The crash brought reverberations in a strike against United by the AFL flight engineers union. Pilots with engineers' licenses have replaced some of the strikers. This was the case on the ill-fated plane.

In his statement Patterson said he expected "certain sources to make claims casting reflections on the qualification of our flight engineer, Samuel F. Arthur." Patterson added:

"The facts are, he was only recently promoted to flight officer status after a highly satisfactory record of seven years of flight engineer duty between 1948 and 1955, and he had considerably more experience as a flight engineer than the average."

In Washington, William Kent, president of the union, asserted an "impossible burden" has been placed on pilots now serving as flight engineers.

Dad Was Late

DETROIT (AP) — Charles Birchfield, 24, screeched his car to a stop and called to two rookie policemen walking their beat.

Birchfield excitedly explained his wife, Opal, 22, was about to have a baby in the back seat of the automobile.

Patrolman Edward Krajewski, 24, quickly slid behind the steering wheel, while Patrolman Gaylord Golding, 24, got in the back to assist the expectant mother. Thus, they sped off—leaving the prospective father stranded on a curb.

Mrs. Birchfield got to the hospital ahead of the stork. Papa—via Police scout car—a few minutes after his daughter had arrived.

Former Lincoln Man Killed In Big Air Crash

One of the victims of the United Air Lines plane crash near Longmont, Colo., Tuesday night, was a former Lincolnite.

Dr. Harold Sandstead of Washington, D. C., deputy secretary of the U.S. Public Health Service, had lived in Lincoln until 20 years ago.

Dr. Sandstead

He came with his parents to Lincoln when he was about 10, and he attended Bethany public schools, Cotner College and the University of Nebraska College of Medicine in Omaha.

Dr. Sandstead's wife, the former Florence Hilton, was also from Lincoln. Her father, the Rev. J. W. Hilton, was pastor of Bethany Christian and East Lincoln Churches. Mrs. Sandstead, who survives, lived in Lincoln during the war.

Mrs. Sandstead's sister, Mrs. Edna Stone, lives in Lincoln.

Other survivors are two children, Harold and Martha, both of Washington, D. C.; sisters, Mrs. Don Wilson of Rapid City, S. D., and Mrs. Jim Stewart of Paris, Ill.; brothers, Russell of Paris, Ill., and Ronald of Marianna, Ark., and an uncle, Prof. R. M. Sandstead of Lincoln.

Woman Parolee, 31, Pleads Innocent In Narcotics Case

A 31-year-old Plattsmouth woman has pleaded innocent in Lancaster District Court on an information for revocation of her probation for alleged attempt to procure narcotics by fraud.

The woman, Mrs. Cora Lea Nolte, was ordered held for hearing Nov. 9 under $3,500 bond on the information.

Mrs. Nolte had been placed on five years probation Dec. 31, 1954, by Judge Harry A. Spencer after she pleaded guilty to a charge of obtaining narcotic drugs by fraud on Oct. 8, 1954, in Lincoln.

The information for revocation alleged attempts on three separate dates in October, reportedly in Omaha.

Mrs. Nolte has been convicted three times for violating state and federal narcotics acts.

In earlier cases she was convicted of falsely obtaining doctor's prescriptions by giving false information.

NE Rotary Club Honors W. H. Parker

The Northeast Lincoln Rotary Club has presented Warren H. Parker a citation in recognition of his contributions to public life. He was the third resident of Northeast Lincoln to receive the honor.

Mr. Parker

Parker was born at Alexandria and graduated from Wesleyan High School and Nebraska Wesleyan University. He entered the insurance business in Plattsmouth in 1941.

He served as an officer in the Navy from 1942 to 1946, then returned to Lincoln where he opened an insurance agency. He was elected to the Board of Education in 1953.

He has served as president of the University Place Lions Club, University Place Businessmen's Association and the Northeast Branch of the YMCA. He is now completing a term as president of the Wesleyan Alumni Association.

A member of Warren Methodist Church, he has served in many church capacities. He also received an award from the "W" Club at Wesleyan given to alumni for achievement.

149 Reinstated

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The provisional government has ordered reinstatement with promotion for 149 Army officers it said were wrongly demoted or retired in the Peron regime. Each was jumped up one rank.

2,300-Volt Jolt Should Be Fatal, But GI Survives

FORT KNOX, Ky. (AP) — It was the biggest shock of his life but Cpl. Richard Sturgell will live.

He brushed a wire and was hit by 2,300 volts. Doctors are still wondering how the 21-year-old soldier managed to survive.

Sturgell, a Korean War veteran, was helping load a ditchdigger Aug. 23 when he found it necessary to lift some power lines in order to move equipment. One wire was hot.

"As I lifted the wires the one hot wire brushed against the back of my neck and the whole charge went through me three times," the soldier recalled.

"It was like being hit by a pile driver — it knocked me off the ditchdigger and held me in the air for seconds while the charges jerked through me."

Agnew Post Office May Be Closed

Discontinuance of the Agnew Post Office is under consideration, the U.S. Post Office Department has advised Congressman Phil Weaver (R-Neb).

Lancaster County Republican headquarters said Weaver was informed that if the Agnew office is discontinued, local patrons would be served by rural carrier from Valparaiso.

Weaver Talks With Benson

WASHINGTON (AP) —Rep. Weaver (R-Neb) discussed farmers' problems with Secretary of Agriculture Benson Wednesday.

"We had a very friendly visit and I was impressed with the sincerity of the secretary," Weaver told reporters.

The Congressman made a special plane trip here to talk with Benson about agriculture matters, including a farm program Weaver proposed last month.

Weaver suggested a temporary, emergency program to establish maximum prices on some things farmers buy for farm operations. Merchants would sell these items below established retail prices and the federal government would pay the merchant the difference.

Weaver said in a statement Tuesday he would ask Benson to study a plan suggested some years ago by former Rep. T. Alan Goldsborough (D-Md). Weaver said this plan was designed to adjust and control commodity prices sold at retail to make them conform to public purchasing power, and to regulate purchasing power so that production of wealth could be fully maintained.

Don't miss it. News of friends on vacation, marriages, engagements, parties, PTA notes and club meetings makes good reading in The Sunday Journal and Star.

Slight Injuries Result In Two Auto Accidents

Two separate accidents Wednesday morning resulted in injuries to two persons, neither serious.

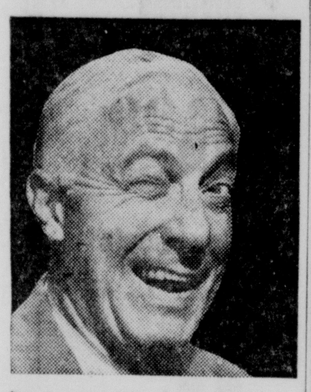
Sally Quattrocchi, 6, riding in a car driven by her mother, Mrs. Wilma Quattrocchi, 39, of 4137 Mohawk, suffered bruises to the left knee and cheek in an accident at 18th and C.

The Quattrocchi vehicle collided with a car driven by Kenneth Williamson, 26, of 1848 C. Sally was treated by a private doctor.

Robert J. Pickett, 19, of 3615 L, a student at the University of Nebraska, suffered a bruised left arm in an accident at 37th and M. He was treated at the Student Health Center.

Pickett's car collided with a vehicle driven by Richard C. Burnett, 17, of 618 So. 32.

"Smart gal, my Susie!"



A lot of wives complain about housework, but not my Susie. She uses her head instead of her muscles. For example, some women are always waxing floors. But my Susie uses new, hard lustre Bruce Self-Polishing Wax. She never has to wax more than once a month or so. That bright, hard finish seems to wear like iron. And to top it off, our beautiful floors are the envy of Susie's friends. My hat's off to Susie and her new Bruce Self-Polishing Wax for making a tough job so easy. Can't help but feel proud of both of them.

P.S. You're the boss, gals! New Bruce Self-Polishing Wax must outshine, outlast all others—or money back!

VIC SEEKS FEMININE VIEWPOINT

. . . On Mansion

Nebraska is going to build a new governor's mansion that will meet the demands of a woman.

There won't be any complaints about not enough closet space and such—not if Gov. Victor Anderson can prevent it.

The governor said that when preliminary plans are ready he is going to get the approval of Mrs. Anderson and the wives of at least three former governors before he puts a final O.K. on them.

He said he intended to call in Mrs. Dwight Griswold, widow of the former U. S. Senator who served six years as governor; Mrs. Val Peterson, wife of the Civil Defense Administration Chief who also served six years as governor, and Mrs. Robert Crosby, wife of the governor who served a single two year term before Anderson moved in.

"I want them to write down their views of what the needs are for a governor's mansion," said Anderson.

Wives To Help

Wives of former governors of Nebraska will be invited to serve as sort of advisory group to the building commissionn in planning the new mansion.

Construction of the proposed new executive mansion probably cannot begin before late in 1956, Statehouse sources indicated.

And if the type of building required appears likely to cost more than the $100,000 allocated by the last Legislature, there would be still more delay.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Husker Yell Squad Ready For Cyclones

Glassford Defends Nebraska Schedule, Likes Strong Foes; Berguin In Action

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

Coach Bill Glassford of Nebraska led a thorough discussion on the merits of the Cornhuskers' football schedules at his Wednesday afternoon press conference.

Asked if he preferred tough non-conference opposition to "soft-touches," the Husker mentor voted heartily in favor of stronger foes.

"I think it's good to play teams from the Big 10, the Southwest Conference and the Pacific Coast Conference such as we do," Bill said. "You learn to play good football by playing good football teams."

Glassford said he thought there was "more harm than good" in playing weak teams and explained: "We profited a great deal by playing tough teams this year. Not only does it help the boys, it makes it easier to coach. There are no psychological problems to be met when you play teams like Ohio State, Texas A&M and Pittsburgh, but there are when you play a team—for example—like Hawaii. It's no trouble to get the boys up for the big games."

Bill cited the fact that the Huskers "haven't won too many games in the Big 10, but we've played well" and compared scores with Ohio State 20-28 and Illinois (21-21), Minnesota (32-26, 7-13) against this year's Hawaii game (0-6).

On the subject of playing football "Ivy League-style," Bill said that the whole problem is one of "relativity—even distribution of talent."

"They play interesting football in the Ivy League, the Southwest Conference, the Big 10 and others," he said. "That's because the talent is well-distributed and usually you get a tough game every week."

Glassford also said that with the exception of Oklahoma, "the competition in the Big Seven "is excellent."

"Take Oklahoma out of the race and you find great competition among the other six teams," he said.

But he said firmly he wasn't advocating Oklahoma's exodus from the conference and he said he had no comment on such a move.

"I don't want to get into any discussion of that," he said. "All I'm saying is that Oklahoma is better than the other teams, but the rest of the conference is fairly even and full of competition."

Scrimmage Session

Wednesday the Huskers held a short defensive scrimmage and also worked on pass defense.

Center Bob Berguin, injured in the Pitt game, took part in the action and may be ready for Iowa State.

Starting Battle

Two starting jobs are open for grabs this week.

John Edwards of North Platte and George Cifra of Turtle Creek, Pa., are scrapping for the No. 1 fullback spot, while Bill Hawkins of Beatrice and Jack Fleming of Kimball are fighting it out for the right tackle post.

Glassford indicated the rest of the starters would remain the same.

Burnine Grabs Catching Lead After Tigers Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Although the losing teams have been turning up the best pass catchers all season, it took a victory to get Missouri's Hank Burnine out in front of the pack.

Burnine, among the leaders every week while Missouri was losing its first six games, gathered in seven of his team's nine completions as the losing streak ended with a 20-12 upset victory over Colorado last Saturday.

That not only gave the tall senior end the undisputed lead in the major college pass-receiving race, the NCAA Statistical Bureau reported Wednesday, but it gave him the biggest margin any player has held in that department this season.

Leading In Yardage

Burnine now has caught 30 passes for gains of 409 yards, leading in yardage as well as in the number of receptions. Second is Bill Barnes of Wake Forest, a team with only a .500 winning average, with 25 catches while Monte Pascoe of battered Dartmouth, is third with 23.

Halfback Carl Wynn, who has caught 11 passes, teams with Burnine to give Missouri the top two-man receiving combination.

On the other side, Sam Wesley of Oregon State captured the pass-interception lead by stealing two passes from Washington, which had had only one intercepted in six previous games. Wesley has six interceptions to five each for Milt Campbell of Indiana, Dick James of Oregon and Dick Hohl of Holy Cross.

Michigan State's Earl Morrall, who previously hadn't kicked often enough to be listed among the punting leaders, threatened Florida's Don Chandler for the top spot after booting five for a 46.8-yard average against Purdue. Chandler has a season average of 46.8 and Morrall 46.7.

The two-man scoring race between Jim Swink of Texas Christian and Jon Arnett of Southern California finds the Texan ahead this week, 81 points to 77. Swink scored seven points against Baylor and Arnett only one in Minnesota's snow. Other high scorers include Ed Vereb, Maryland, 66, Tom McDonald, Oklahoma, 60; Al Ward, Yale, and Howard Cassady, Ohio State, 54 each; Paige Cothren, Mississippi, 53, and Sam Brown, UCLA, and Art Luppino, Arizona, 52 each.

Cothren has kicked five field goals, the biggest total since 1950, while Wyoming's Joe Mastrogiovanni leads in conversions with 17 of 20. Arnett is the national leader in advancing the ball by all methods with 1,255 yards by rushing, passing, pass catching and kick runbacks.

Vic Raschi Attests Playing Days Over

CONESUS LAKE, N. Y., (AP)—Vic Raschi, former right-handed ace for the New York Yankees, said Wednesday he had "retired" as an active ball player.

Raschi, who pitched on six Yankee championship teams, indicated to the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle he might be interested in some kind of baseball job, but his playing days are over.

Raschi, 36, played part of last season with the St. Louis Cardinals and part with the Kansas City Athletics. His combined won-lost record was 4-7.

Raschi played nine years of major league ball. He presently is part-owner of a motel in Orillia, Ont.

Team's Comeback Has Spartan Coach Smiling

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Last year, they were feeling sorry for Duffy Daugherty, the likeable and always cheerful Michigan State football coach.

This season, the sympathy has been going to his opponents.

The difference between a 3-6 won and lost record in 1954 and a 5-1 record so far this fall—with the fourth spot in the AP poll—makes the Daugherty story one of the coaching comebacks of the year.

Among the Spartan's victims is mighty Notre Dame which went down to a 21-7 defeat three weeks ago. The only mar on Michigan State's record is an early season 14-7 "squeaker" to undefeated Michigan.

Daugherty was a man on a spotlighted spot last year.

He followed Biggie Munn, who built football into a bit-time proposition at Michigan State, and had moved up to athletic director after losing only two games in four years, topping his coaching career with a Rose Bowl victory.

Most of Munn's assistants left for head coaching jobs and Daugherty had to build a new staff almost from scratch.

Troubles and losses piled up as his debut season progressed.

Daugherty experimented with almost daily practice scrimmages and the result was a raft of injuries to key players. There was some inevitable disorganization.

Against Wisconsin, someone forgot to substitute for an injured player and the winning touchdown was made when MSU had only 10 men on the field. Against Notre Dame, someone twice forgot to supply the extra point man with his kicking tee and the Irish won by an extra point margin.

Michigan State hobbled through the season with the worst record since the days of World War I.

Duffy still smiled, cracked jokes and refused to alibi but the smile sometimes sagged down to his shoe laces.

DUFF DAUGHERTY

"Too bad it had to happen to such a nice guy," was the most typical remark.

This season, Daugherty did some reshuffling of his assistants and added another new helper and the staff has been clicking in high gear. He gave up practice scrimmages entirely once the season started and cut down on injuries.

Hard work paid off and luck finally found him. The good-looking sophomore crop came through as promised and Michigan State seemed to find one great payoff player per game.

Ex-Hollywood Boss Hints He'll Try PCL Talent

By JOE BRADIS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates picked Bobby Bragan as field manager Wednesday, and thereby started a new National League guessing game: Is Bragan a "Rickey man" or a "Brown man."

Bragan himself, moving up from the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League, promptly paid tribute to Branch Rickey Sr., whose five-year contract as Pirate general manager ended only Tuesday.

But General Manager Joe L. Brown, successor to Rickey, emphatically labelled Bragan as a "Brown man" and said he will stake his record as general manager on Bragan's performance with the team.

Rickey wasn't at the news conference, and reportedly was en route to Mexico to look over some player prospects in the Winter League there.

But this much was clear: Bragan's name popped up in speculation about the new Pirate field manager within minutes of the announcement by Haney on Sept. 25 that he had been told he would not be retained for this year.

At that time Rickey still was general manager and the pending retirement had not attracted any very great attention. So the gossip that linked Bragan's name to the job was traceable to his association with Rickey over a good many of his baseball years.

Bobby, originally an infielder, switched to catching while with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1942, and was a playing manager in 72 games at Hollywood last year where his team rallied to finish third after a sorry start.

He said he doesn't intend to be a playing manager in the majors "unless the bottom drops out" of the Pirate team.

He inherits a club that finished a last but looked to be definitely on the upgrade at the end of the season. Bragan hinted very strongly he'll give a lot of his Hollywood mainstays another chance at the big leagues to further the Pirate youth movement.

Specifically, Bragan named outfielder Bobby Delgreco as outranked only by Willie Mays and Duke Snider among present National League players, and said pitcher Bob Garber, infielders Dick Smith and Curt Roberts and outfielder Carlos Bernier were Pittsburgh prospects on the Triple-A team last year.

Bragan told the news conference that he would pick his own coaches, that he intends to retain Clyde Sukeforth, and that he is "strong" for George Sisler.

"I am delighted at the opportunity presented to me," said Bragan. "Joe Brown and I will work together to make this a winning ball club."

Very Outspoken

The 37-year-old Bragan, who owns a reputation of being very outspoken indeed when he disagrees with an umpire, told writers he believes he is very well behaved in that respect.

"I went the entire season with Hollywood this year before I was tossed out of a ball game on the last day of the season," he said.

Ryff Whips Ex-Champ

BALTIMORE (AP) — Frankie Ryff, fourth-ranking lightweight, knocked down Paddy De Marco, former champion of the division, for an eight count in the sixth round Wednesday night and went on to win a close unanimous decision.

The 22-year-old Ryff, of Brooklyn, who had lost only once in 20 fights, bled from his vulnerable eyes from the fourth round on, but his right-hand flooring of the 27-year-old DeMarco gained him the nod of two judges and the referee before 1,727 paid fans at the Coliseum and a national television audience.

Referee Eddie Leonard voted 98-92 for Ryff, Judge Bennie Goldstein 98-94 and Judge John Kelly 99-95.

Ryff's right-hand sock came suddenly in the sixth to put DeMarco flat on his back. As the former lightweight champion was going down, Ryff's right elbow caught him in the face and drew blood from his nose.

DeMarco, groggy but conscious enough to look to his corner for instructions, took several one-two combinations from Ryff before the bell ended the possibility of a knockout. There were no other close approaches to a knockdown in the 10-round bout.

Praise For Tiger Coach

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Petitions have been drawn up here expressing confidence in Don Faurot as the University of Missouri's football coach. Faurot is under fire by certain alumni.

The pro-Faurot move followed the circulation of petitions, reported to have originated in western Missouri, seeking the ouster of Faurot.

Ray Cliffe, coach at Cleveland High School here and one of the three drafters of the petition lauding Faurot, said the document will be circulated at a showing of movies of the Missouri-Colorado game here Thursday and at a Missouri alumni dinner here Friday night.

The petition salutes Faurot for his "contribution toward the University of Missouri's sane and sensible athletic program."

NU Frosh To Play K-State

University of Nebraska freshmen footballers go against Kansas State Friday at Manhattan, 3 p.m.

Both teams have been defeated once, the young Cornhuskers dropping a 17-14 decision to Iowa State while the K-State yearlings were losing to Kansas, 19-13.

Right halfbacks—Claire Boroff, Grand Island; Larry Miller, Holdrege; Gene Fosket, Hemingford.

Fullbacks—Richard McCashland, Geneva; Larry Naviaux, Lexington; Dick Wood, David City; James DeSimone, Watertown, Mass.

SE Reserves Nip Seward Reserves

Southeast Reserves trailed for three periods, then exploded in the fourth quarter with 14 points to whip the Seward Reserves, 14-12, Wednesday.

Jon Van Bloom tossed to Don Campbell for a 30-yard tally, and Virgil Kubert scampered 20 yards for the second. Kubert scored both extra points, which were the margin of victory.

The win gives the Junior Knights a 3-2 won-lost record for the year.

Southeast Res.	0	0	0	14	—14
Seward Res.	0	6	0	6	—12

Southeast scoring — Touchdowns, Campbell (30, pass-run from Van Bloom), Kubert (20, run). Conversions, Kubert 2 (pass from Van Bloom, run).

Seward scoring—Touchdowns, Bluhm 2 (8, 30, runs).

Santee Will Start But He Won't Run

QUANTICO, Va. (AP)—Marine Lt. Wes Santee, the country's top miler, has withdrawn from the Quantico Marine-Villanova cross country meet because of his suspension as an amateur athlete. Instead, he will act as a starter at the meet Saturday in Philadelphia.

Santee, captain of the Marine team, was suspended Sunday by the Missouri Valley AAU registration committee on grounds that he accepted excessive expense allowances for appearing in three California track meets last May. He has appealed the decision to the Missouri Valley AAU board of managers.

Quantico athletic officials, in announcing Santee's withdrawal Wednesday, said Marine Capt. Bill Taylor will run as Quantico's No. 1 man against Villanova. Taylor is a former University of Southern California runner.

Cathedral, Knights Meet Rugged Foes In '55 Finale

Games Tonight

Ashland ..... at Southeast (Lincoln High Oval, 7:30 p.m.)
Cathedral ..... at Omaha Central

By RON SPEER
Star Sports Staff Member

The final curtain is going down for two Capital City prep teams tonight, completing a mighty fine season for one and interrupting the other club just as it appears to be getting to its feet.

The Cathedral Bluebirds travel to Omaha Cathedral to wrap up their 1955 season. The 'Birds have won six, tied one and lost one.

Coach Tom Gillaspie's Southeast Knights will entertain Ashland on the Lincoln High Oval at 7:30 p.m. The Coronation of the Knight of football and his lady will be held at halftime.

Southeast, winless in its first six starts, whipped Tecumseh in its last outing and will be shooting for two in a row tonight.

The Knights started in fast company and never seemed to regain their balance after trouncings by Hastings, Beatrice, etc. Against Tecumseh the Knights tightened their armor, overcame a touchdown lead and went on to win.

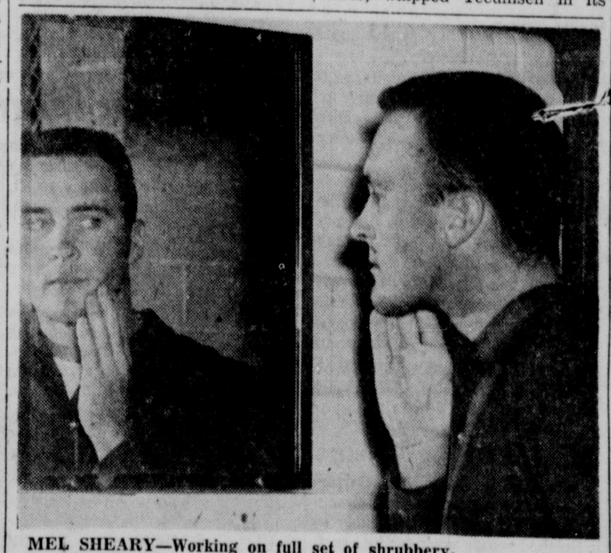
The visiting Ashlanders have been tripped only twice this fall. Bellevue dumped them, 20-13, and Omaha Westside edged them, 20-13.

Ashland is The Star's number six team in the Class B ratings, and looks too strong for the Knight despite a Homecoming spirit. We'll pick Ashland to win by two touchdowns, hoping the Knights will surprise.

The Bluebirds get the nod in the trek to Omaha. The 'Birds' single-wing power behind crisp blocking is hard to stop, with several ballcarriers ready to ramble at any time.

Coach Vince Aldrich indicated he will start the same 11 that routed Weeping Water last week, with the exception of Jim Partington at guard. Partington will replace Bill Hartnett, who reinjured a rib injury this week.

Omaha Cathedral has lost only twice this season, dropping a 15-20 decision to Omaha Holy Name (the Bluebirds downed Holy Name, 12-6) and getting whitewashed by Falls City, 34-0.



MEL SHEARY—Working on full set of shrubbery.

EX-WESLEYAN CAGER SHEARY JOINS HOUSE OF DAVID FIVE

Melvin Sheary, former Nebraska Wesleyan University basketball and baseball star who graduated last spring, has left Lincoln to join the House of David basketball team.

Sheary said he expects to stay with the organization as a member of the touring baseball unit next summer.

Sheary joined the Davids in Muscatine, Ia., where they played an exhibition Wednesday night. For the next four months the team will tour through the Northwest and Canada. In March the team will fly to Europe for a barnstorming tour with the Harlem Globe Trotters.

George Anderson, now in his 29th year as manager of the House of David, told Sheary that both basketball and baseball units will tour Hawaii, Japan and Australia next fall.

Sheary was an all-state basketball performer at Waverly high school in the late 40's. He lead his team to a Class C championship in the spring of 1949 and matriculated at Wesleyan that fall.

After two years as a Plainsman, Sheary enlisted in the armed services in 1951. He returned to the campus and earned his fourth letter in both basketball and baseball during the 1953-54 and 1954-55 campaigns.

St. Mary's Ends Season Tonight

David City St. Mary's, The Star's top-rated six-man football team, shoots for its second win in 11-man competition tonight and seeks a clean sweep of its 1955 schedule.

The St. Mary's foe is Concordia High at Seward.

4 Seniors To Captain Doane

CRETE—Coach Al Papik has named four seniors to captain the Doane Tigers in their last game of the season at Wayne Saturday afternoon.

The four are ends Don Haberman of Gresham, and Ed McIninch of Mason City; quarterback Don Crowder of Exeter; and Ron Chrans, guard of Wilber.

Haberman, back fro mthe service, is the top receiver with 12 passes for 239 yards. McIninch, with the Tigers two years after graduating from Fairbury Junior College, ranks second in receptions with six caught for 111 yards. Quarterback Crowder, a three-year letter winner, leads the Tigers' total offense with 484 yards in seven games. Ron Chrans, an All-Conference selection last year, started all the games this year and is a top defensive lineman.

Both Doane and Wayne, each with a 3-3 record in conference play, will be fighting for the upper division. The Wildcats spoiled the Doane homecoming last year with a 20-12 victory. Coach Papik's Tigers are out to return the favor Saturday.

Huskers Enter Four-Team Meet

The University of Nebraska cross country team will compete in a four-way meet at Ames Saturday against Iowa State, Kansas State, and Colorado.

Mountaineers Face Big George Washington Line

Nation's Top Offensive Club Eyes Old Nemesis

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Washington, generally a second-rate football school but long a menace to West Virginia, is likely to give the 1955 Mountaineers their most rugged test in the Southern Conference's "big game" of the year here Friday night.

As an indication, GW's 209-pound line will be the first to outweigh West Virginia's 206-pound backfield this season.

Both schools are 3-0 in the conference while West Virginia's overall record is 6-0 and GW's 5-1. GW lost 28-0 to Florida in a game in which the Colonials were hamstrung by injuries.

West Virginia, ranked seventh in the United States, has the best ground-gaining record in the country, averaging 450 yards a contest. The Mountaineers' 170-yard average also tops the nation in passing. In rushing, West Virginia is fourth with an average of 280 yards.

Against that formidable offensive record, GW stacks the sixth best defensive mark in the land. It has yielded 169 yards a game. In passing defense, GW is fifth with a per-game yield of 47 yards.

GW's coach, Bo Sherman, acknowledged Wednesday that the Mountaineers have as good a team as any in the land, but wasn't conceding a thing about the game. He said he wasn't going to be satisfied with a moral victory.

That's what GW earned last year when it held West Virginia to 13-7. The Colonials led 7-6 going into the final quarter and gave up only 224 yards to the offense-minded Mountaineers.

"They have everything," Sherman said, "experience, speed weight, poise. They've been playing together for four years and they're at their peak. They're real good."

Sherman said he was cooking up no new plays for the Griffith Stadium game, expected to draw some 25,000 fans, the biggest home crowd in GW's history.

"We scrimmaged on fundamentals," Sherman said. "It's going to be a defensive game and we're concentrating on stopping their good backs."

The key men in West Virginia's attack are Bobby Moss, 10th in the country in rushing with 450 yards and a 9.3 average, and Freddy Wyant, the left-handed, T-quarterback who has passed for 534 yards on 32 completions in 56 tries.

GW's best offensive bet is sophomore Mike Sommer, a 170-pound track star who has averaged 5 yards a try in gaining 359 yards rushing.

Sugar Ray Top-Ranking Challenger

NEW YORK (AP) — The comeback of one-time champion Sugar Ray Robinson has caused a shakeup in the middleweight boxing rankings.

Sugar Ray, who meets middleweight champion Bobo Olson in a title fight at Chicago Dec. 9, has moved up from the No. 2 to No. 1 spot among the challengers.

His old No. 2 spot was taken over by Rocky Castellani while Charley Humez of France, who has been inactive, fell from No. 1 to No. 3.

The monthly rankings of Ring Magazine, released Wednesday, also showed changes in the heavyweight picture.

Hurricane Tommy Jackson, beaten by Jimmy Slade for the second time, lost his place as third-ranking challenger to Nino Valdes, the giant Cuban, and fell to fourth. Slade, meanwhile, came out of the unranked lists to take over No. 3.

The leading contenders for Rocky Marciano's crown are lightheavyweight champion Archie Moore, who is gunning for a return engagement, and Bob Baker of Pittsburgh.

In the 175-pound division, Yolande Pompey of Trinidad, who meets Moore in London Jan. 10, climbed from fourth to third, trailing Floyd Patterson and Willie Pastrano. Harold Johnson of Philadelphia fell to fourth.

The welter-weight contenders for Carmen Basilio's title are Tony DeMarco, Saxton, Virgil Akins and Vince Martinez in that order.

Tigers Sharpen Offense

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—The University of Missouri football squad concentrated on offense Wednesday as it finished rough work for its meeting with the University of Oklahoma here Saturday.

Coach Don Faurot pronounced his ace quarterback, Jim Hunter, in good condition but held him out of rough work, taking no chances on a recurrence of his leg injury.

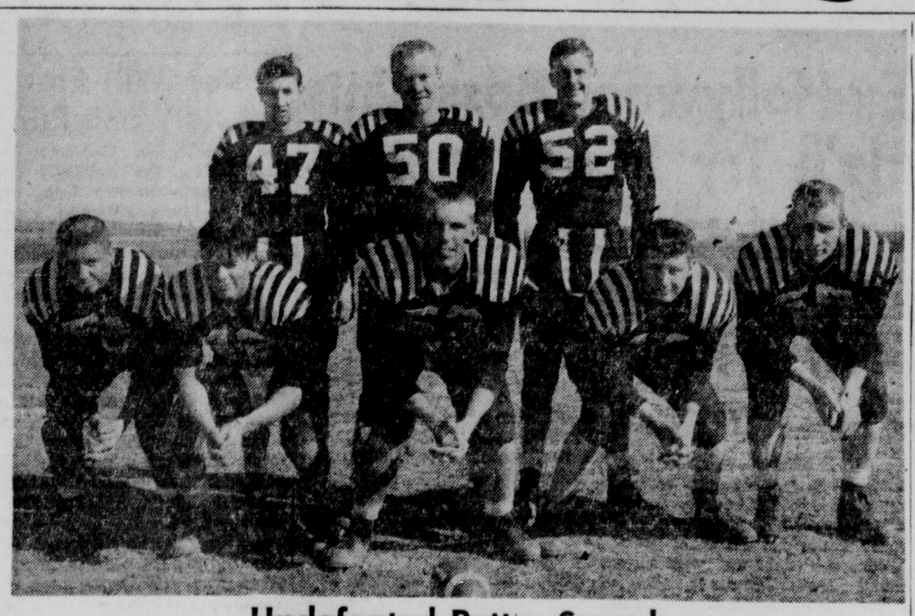
KU Polishes Passing

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—The Kansas football team polished its pass defense and rushing offense in a dummy scrimmage Wednesday. Coach Chuck Mather said fullback Dick Reich and center Frank Black probably will play Saturday against Kansas State.

Reich missed last week's Nebraska game because of a twisted knee, while Black was held out because of a "jammed" neck.

Wildcats Work

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas State Wildcats ran through offensive formations Wednesday despite near freezing temperatures.



Undefeated Potter Squad

OMAHA (AP)—Creighton will open a 20-game basketball schedule against Buena Vista here Dec. 2, under the direction of a new coach, Theron (Tommy) Tomsen.

Thomsen comes to the Omaha school from Coe College. He is a former University of Iowa cager.

A big problem for the Bluejays will be finding a replacement for Eddie Cole, who set a new Creighton scoring mark of 1,437 points last season.

Only four letermen return. They are Lyle Odell, 6-5; Dan Simon, 6-2; Charles Foberg, 6-2, and Bob Gibson, 6-0.

Creighton has received permission from the NCAA and the Missouri Valley Conference to use freshmen on the Varsity this year. Although it is no longer a member of the conference, Creighton still follows Missouri Valley regulations.

The schedule:

Dec. 2—Buena Vista College at Creighton; Dec. 5—Morningside College at Creighton; Dec. 12—Morningside College at Creighton; Dec. 15—Texas Western at Creighton; Dec. 15—St. Thomas College of Minnesota at Creighton; Dec. 29 and 30—NAIA Pre-Season Tournament at Omaha Civic Auditorium.

Jan. 3—Drake University at Des Moines; Jan. 6—South Dakota State at Brookings, S. D.; Jan. 7—South Dakota University at Vermillion, S. D.; Jan. 12—University of Omaha at Omaha U.; Jan. 16—South Dakota University at Creighton; Jan. 28—Canisius University at Buffalo, N. Y.; Jan. 30—Seton Hall University at South Orange, N. J.

Feb. 1—Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass.; Feb. 3—St. Francis College at Brooklyn, N. Y.; Feb. 5—St. Michael's College at Burlington, Vt.; Feb. 10—Loras College at Creighton; Feb. 14—Marquette University at Milwaukee, Wis.; Feb. 17—University of Omaha at Creighton; Feb. 22—Loyola University at Chicago, Ill.

March 1—Drake University at Creighton; March 3—South Dakota State at Creighton.

Cyclone Halfback Situation Critical

AMES, Iowa (AP)—Iowa State faces a bad situation at left halfback in its game with Nebraska Saturday, Coach Vince Di Francesca said Wednesday.

There are five left halfbacks on the roster but three of them are out with injuries and it is doubtful if they can play. They are Don Lorenzen, Gary Lutz and Brooks Young.

The injuries leave only two sophomores, Jack Hansen and Fred Rippel, to man the left half post against the Huskers.

The backs practiced pass protection, blocking and open field tackling Wednesday while the linemen worked on offensive blocking.

'True-Blue To America'

Mat Fans Are Faithful Despite Testimony

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Like the crapshooter who knew the dice were loaded but "it's the only game in town," wrestling fans are diehards.

Two weeks ago in Los Angeles the wrestling promoters' one secret fear exploded in their faces. Two referees testified under oath in court that the weekly matches were usually pre-arranged; that there was no element of contest; that the exhibitions were "fixed."

But any doubts on the part of the promoters that the wrestling faithful would be affected by the disclosure have vanished.

Monday night, wrestling matches were conducted at Hollywood Legion Stadium and Olympic Auditorium and as many fans as usual were there.

A number of fans were asked what they thought about the "fix" publicity. Herbert Dewar said:

"I think they're on the level, especially the good boys. But I suppose occasionally if one of them doesn't feel well he might ask the other wrestler to ease up a little."

A lady fan said:

"I just ignore those reports. I'm here because it amuses me."

Her companion added:

"I was surprised and disappointed about the testimony, but I go now to see if it's going to be cleaned up. I'm true-blue to America."

USGA Investigating Calcutta Pool 'Hoax'

Winning Ticket Worth $16,000

NEW YORK (INS) —The United States Golf Association announced Wednesday it has begun an investigation of the $45,000 Calcutta Pool "hoax" at the Deepdale, N. Y., golf tournament.

Joe Dey, executive secretary of the USGA, said the Association "already has begun looking into the case" in which a low-handicap golfer used the name and the handicap of a much poorer player, to win the tourney last Sept. 18-19.

Dey emphasized that the USGA has long maintained a "strong stand" against Calcutta Pools and other types of organized gambling on golf. He said the Association has issued many warnings against these pools, but that it has little power because it is not a policing body.

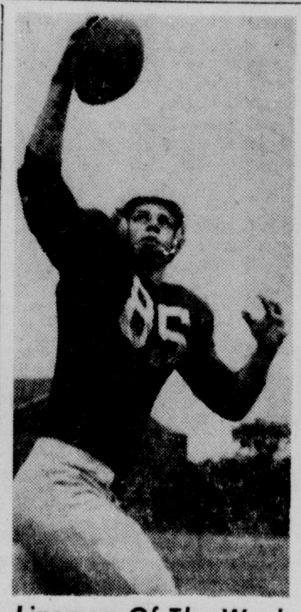
Charles Helmar, 37-year-old West Springfield, Mass., golfer admitted he falsified his credentials and adopted the name of another player (Richard Vitali) to enter the tourney with William Roberts, 25-year-old low-scoring amateur from Amherst, Mass.

The pair combined to win the tournament by five shots.

"My guess is that the executive committee will review the whole thing again at our January meeting," Dey declared. "The first move probably will come from the amateur status committee."

The winning ticket, a major share of which was held by Richard Armstrong of the Sands Point (L. I.) Golf Club, amounted to $16,106.93.

Roberts, who had a quarter share of himself, was to receive $4,026.73.



Lineman Of The Week

Tom Maentz, University of Michigan's 220-pound end, Wednesday was named Associated Press lineman of the week for his play against Iowa. Maentz pulled in a last-quarter pass and went 60 yards for the winning touchdown. (AP Wirephoto.)

Where Society Used To Meet

Stylish Horse Show Now Old Hat

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (INS) — What was once the most snobbish event on earth is now as common as an old pair of shoes.

That, of course, would be the National Horse Show, currently having its 67th running in Madison Square Garden.

Nowadays, horse show addicts are more interested in the horses and their riders than they are in the formally togged gentry in the boxes.

But it was not always thus. The horse show moved in 1890 into what was then the new Madison Square Garden, which was actually at Madison Square and which was torn down 30 years ago.

The present Madison Square Garden was built five miles away from the site of the old one.

The old building was designed by Stanford White, a famous architect, who years later was to be shot to death in the Roof Restaurant.

The grand opening in 1890 was a pip. The society dowagers vied with each other in buying up boxes, and believe it or not some of the boxes went for as high as $350.

Some of those old gals with the retrousse noses even sent over their own rugs and chairs to replace the regular seats.

Every dowager carride her lorgnette, and if one happened to be a social climber eager to break in among the other dames who had "arrived" a few years before her, her lorgnette was sure to be longer and her dress more expensive.

The dressmakers who catered to the wealthy had a field day every time the horse show rolled around. Expense was no object, and it was estimated that with a change of scenery for every afternoon and evening performance no gal could get through the show for less than $15,000. She might have to go to $25,000 to surpass a rival.

And don't you think the male members of the 400 weren't just as stuffy and snooty as the females.

White tie, tails and silk topper were de rigeur. Any thing else was de trop or even de bunk.

As the gay nineties grew gayer the horse show became more and more a society event, and this led to one of the best laughs of the decade.

There was a wealthy old bachelor famous for his practical jokes, who cared little for horses and less for society. He bought a horse from a car barn, dolled it up, gave it a fancy name and entered it in the horse show. And darned if it wasn't awarded a ribbon!

And there were plenty of red faces when the old rascal tipped off the press as to what he had done.

Maentz AP's Top Lineman

By TED MEIER
The Associated Press

Tom Maentz, a husky 220-pound end for the University of Michigan, turned defeat into victory for the Wolverines against Iowa Saturday. He caught a forward pass and went 60 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown in Michigan's great last-quarter rally.

For his performance that delighted Michigan adherents in the crowd of 72,000 at Ann Arbor and in a national television audience, Maentz was selected Wednesday as The Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

Maentz thus joined quarterback Bob Hardy of Kentucky at the head of the week's honor roll for individual excellence.

Hardy was named Back of the Week for his performance in steering the Wildcats from behind twice for a 20-16 victory over Rice.

Jones, Fondy And Miksis Sign Pacts

CHICAGO (INS) — The Chicago Cubs signed three more players Wednesday for the 1956 season.

They are pitcher Sam Jones, first baseman Dee Fondy, and outfielder Eddie Miksis. Jones, winners of 14 games and charged with 20 losses during 1955, pitched the only no-hitter of the past season against Pittsburgh on May 12.

The Cubs now have six players under contract. Others are outfielder Hank Sauer, shortstop Ernie Banks, and second baseman Gene Baker.

In 1950 Michigan State held Pittsburgh to a minus of 11 yards offensively. The Spartans won 19-0.

Summer Tan earned $151,096 when the colt won the 1954 Garden State Stakes, but his dam, a mare named Miss Zibby, was sold for $400 because nobody thought her worthwhile for breeding purpose.

Sowers Hear Governor In Hebron

Lincoln Star Special

HEBRON, Neb. — Gov. Victor Anderson spoke at a dinner meeting in Hebron Wednesday night which wound up a two-day trip for the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce Sowers Club.

R. J. Cederdahl served as master of ceremonies at the dinner, after which the Sowers returned to Lincoln.

Gov. Anderson had joined the Sowers Wednesday at Republican City, where the group was greeted by Max Barker, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Dick Latham, and O. J. Carpenter, Chamber secretary. The American Legion Auxiliary served a luncheon at the Sportsmen's Club for the group.

The group was greeted by Keith Pettijean, school superintendent, at Wilsonville where 190 people met the Sowers.

School Superintendent Melvin Doeschot and High School Band Director Lowell Cline, along with 200 people, greeted the group at Beaver City.

About 220 people came out at Stamford, including Wayne Coffey, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Orleans Chamber of Commerce President Bernard Hesemann headed the 50 people who met the Sowers.

At Alma 350 people greeted the group, including Ralph Stratton, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Warren Metzer, secretary of the Chamber: Marvin Stovall, school superintendent, and Bob Taschall, band director.

Dr. W. E. Chappell, mayor of Minden, welcomed the Sowers at a noon luncheon.

Chamber Secretary J. R. Sonerson and Superintendent of Schools, Leo Kelley met the group at Axtell.

The Sowers had coffee with LaMonte Lundstrom, president of the Chamber of Commerce, when they reached Holdree.

The high school band, President of the Chamber A. H. Niesen and more than 400 persons greeted the Sowers at Oxford.

Mayor Rodney Deselms of Edison and Mayor F. C. Gould of Arapahoe greeted the group at their towns.

At Holbrook Charles Schroeder, directing the high school band, met the Sowers. Mayor High Eisenhart and Chamber President Ed Taylor welcomed the group at Cambridge.

At Naponee the Sowers met School Superintendent Gannon and Floyd Boone, secretary-treasurer of the town Board.

At Franklin Mayor Noble M. Johnson, City Councilman J. H. Williams and Chamber President Earl Hoffmeyer were on hand to greet the Sowers.

At Riverton Mayor Siel and School Superintendent K. L. Shaw were present. Chamber President Gordon Buster and Secretary Earl Carpenter met the group at Red Cloud. The Sowers also visited Guide Rock.

Mayor Floyd Bayan and Chamber President Lowell Haughton greeted the Sowers at Superior. Also on hand was Oran King, president of the South Platte United Chambers of Commerce.

Reunion Continues, 52 Get Degrees

Forty-three Lincoln and 10 outstate candidates received the 15th to 18th degrees of Scottish Rite Freemasonry at the Scottish Rite Temple in Lincoln Wednesday.

Lincoln chapter of Rose Croix of which Richard Wait is wise master conferred the religious and historical degrees as part of the 105th reunion of the rite in the Valley of Lincoln.

NAVY'S FIRST

NEW YORK (AP) — The Navy's first draftee since World War II is an ex-soldier. He is Donald F. Geraci, 25, of Forest Hills, N.Y., a musician, who served in the National Guard 7½ years.

Ex-Prof Is Found GuiltyOfContempt

WASHINGTON (INS) — A former professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology was found guilty of contempt of Congress Wednesday for refusing to detail his experiences in the Communist Party.

Lawrence Baker Arguimbau of Cambridge, Mass., was convicted on 11 counts of contempt growing out of his appearance before the House un-American Activities Committee in 1953.

The ruling was handed down by Judge James W. Morris, who deferred sentencing until a probation report can be received.

Singer's Suicide Try Nets Her Fine Of $25

MIAMI BEACH (INS) — Nightclub entertainer Joanne Du Val was found guilty Wednesday of breach of the peace by attempted suicide and was fined $25.

Miss Du Val, a silver-blonde, was found in her Miami Beach apartment with both wrists slashed. Police quoted her at the time as saying she did it out of love of comedian Bert Stone, whose wife and Miss Du Val recently tangled in a ladies-room brawl.

Don't miss it. News of friends on vacation, marriages, engagements, parties, PTA notes and club meetings makes good reading in The Sunday Journal and Star.

Annexation Hearing Set For Nov. 23

OMAHA (AP) — The Omaha City Council has set Nov. 23 for a hearing on six annexation ordinances and is clearly anticipating that a battle will develop.

Instead of setting the hearing on final reading of the ordinances on a regular council day, Tuesday, the hearing has been scheduled for Wednesday so it won't hold up other council business.

The six ordinances would take in 10.6 square miles and 14,761 persons west of the city.

22 Arguments

The Westside Community Council, a group representing several community organizations on the western outskirts, has filed with the council a protest listing 22 arguments against annexation of the area between Fort, Center, 72nd and 90th streets.

Arguments included charges that the city can't provide the area with adequate fire protection garbage and trash collection, sidewalks, street maintenance, street lights, police protection, traffic control, sanitary and storm sewers, public transportation and weed control.

Annexation, the Westside group declared, would "create havoc and ineffectiveness in operations of government functions" within the city.

Paying city taxes, the protest said, would force some of the fringe-area residents to sell their homes to avoid bankruptcy.

30 JAYCEE GROUPS PLAN CONTEST

WAYNE, Neb. (AP)—About 30 Nebraska Junior Chamber of Commerce Chapters will be holding Voice of Democracy contests before Nov. 11, according to Dave Hamer Jr. of Wayne, state chairman of the ninth annual event.

High school students in each of the towns where the contests are being sponsored will give three-minute talks on "I Speak for Democracy."

January 1 a Nebraska winner will be named from tape recordings sent to Hamer and judged at Nebraska State Teachers' College at Wayne.

The state winner will receive a television set, a chance at a scholarship and a trip to Washington, D. C., awarded to each of the four national winners.

Extension Agents Elect Officers

Graduate Program Planned At Wayne

WAYNE, Neb. (AP)—Wayne State Teachers College plans a graduate program leading to the degree master of science of master of arts in education beginning with the summer term next June.

The State Normal Board said it had authorized the four state teachers colleges to grant graduate degrees.

Three Ex-Convicts Given Penitentiary Sentences On Burglary Charges

Three ex-convicts were sent back to the Nebraska Penitentiary Wednesday on burglary charges in Lancaster District Court resulting from recent Lincoln police action which cleared 17 break-ins in the city and area.

A woman who was involved in the burglary ring, was placed on two years' probation.

Prison terms imposed on the three men ranged from six years to 18 months.

Ira D. Brockman, 26, Beatrice, who pleaded guilty to burglary of the Swift Fuel Co., 3265 Sheridan, Oct. 18 and admitted participating in 16 or 17 other incidents, was given six years. Authorities considered him the ringleader.

Floyd Craig, 26, Blair, who was caught with Brockman by police in the Swift company break-in, was sentenced to four years.

Edwin E. Lundy, 27, Cheney, who pleaded guilty to the burglary of the Strauss Bros. lumber company, 3815 Touzalin on Sept. 26 was sentenced to 18 months.

Mrs. LaVon Brockman, 25, 528 So. 26th, who pleaded guilty to burglary and admitted she drove the get-away car in the Swift company break-in, was placed on two years' probation.

In suspending sentence, Judge Paul White noted Mrs. Brockman had no previous record.

Ira Brockman was released from the Penitentiary Sept. 1 after serving a prison escape sentence and a previous grand larceny sentence, according to records.

Craig was released from the Penitentiary Oct. 7 after serving a burglary term. He has served terms for grand larceny and carrying a concealed weapon.

Lundy was released on parole in 195. and discharged last April after completing in the Penitentiary a reformatory term for burglary.

The fifth ring member, Carl Richard Brockman, 25, 528 So. 26th, is awaiting arraignment in Cass County District Court in connection with the burglary of the Eagle school on Oct. 17, according to authorities there.

Brockman, the husband of LaVon, has waived preliminary hearing in Cass County Court and was released on $1,500 bond for appearance in District Court Nov. 10.

Brockman, who has lived in Lincoln the past three years working as a baker, completed in 1950 a reformatory escape sentence and a one-to-five year burglary term at the Penitentiary.

'Art' Randall, 66, Band Leader, Dies

OMAHA (AP)—Arthur (Art) Randall, 66, Omaha band leader and musician, died of a heart attack Wednesday.

Randall formed his own band in 1916 and came here from Kansas City, Mo., five years later.

He is survived by his widow and five brothers and two sisters. Funeral services are pending.

Weber Aid Fund Rises To $1,400

GOTHENBURG, Neb. (AP)—Donations from Lincoln, Grand Island, North Platte, Cozad, and some Kansas towns have helped swell the Jaycees-sponsored fund for the Clarence Weber family here to $1,400.

Weber, his wife, and one child are still hospitalized after a traffic accident Oct. 10 in Gothenburg. Five other children injured in the accident have been dismissed from the hospital and all but one have rejoined the Webers' six other children at their farm home near Cozad.

Mrs. Staley, 75, Hastings, Is Dead; Native Lincolnite

HASTINGS, Neb.—Funeral services for Mrs. A. H. Staley, 75, who died unexpectedly in a local hospital, have tentatively been set for 10:30 a.m. Friday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Although she had been in frail health for a number of months, Mrs. Staley had been ill only a few days. She and Dr. Staley returned home recently from a vacation visit in Washington, D.C., with their daughter, Mrs. Helen Philos and family.

A native of Lincoln, Mrs. Staley had lived in Hastings for 36 years. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and PEO.

Surviving in addition to her husband and daughter are a son, Dr. Eugene Staley, who went to New Delhi, India, a few weeks ago from his home in Palo Alto, Calif.; five grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Lawson Robb of Lincoln.

Neighbors Aid Farmer

CHAPMAN, Neb.—Friends and neighbors gathered at the Clyde Fishburn farm near here with corn pickers recently and harvested 75 acres of corn. Fishburn has been disabled with a fractured ankle.

Duchess Of Windsor Among Prominent To Be Quizzed In Woodward Case

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP)—An array of the socially prominent including the Duchess of Windsor Wednesday night faced eventual questioning in the fatal shooting of millionaire William Woodward Jr. by his wife.

Authorities said they wanted to talk with everyone of the 60 persons who attended a party with the Woodwards just hours before the tragedy. The duchess, wife of the former King of England, was the guest of honor.

Meanwhile, more than 1,000 persons prominent in society, finance, and sports attended funeral services in New York City for Woodward, 35, owner of the fabulous race horse, Nashua.

Across his mahogany casket lay a blanket of red and white flowers —his racing colors—ordered by his bitterly weeping widow from her hospital bed.

Shock

The blonde Ann Woodward, 39, former model and radio actress, has been suffering from shock since she shot her husband in the early morning darkness last Sunday in their Oyster Bay home. She said she mistook him for a prowler.

The widow pleaded with her physician to be allowed to attend the funeral—asking him to give her some kind of medicine to bolster her up if need be—but he refused.

While the services went on, Dist. Atty. Frank Gulotta told newsmen every one of the guests who attended a Saturday night party at the Long Island estate of wealthy Mrs. George F. Baker would be interrogated.

The authorities presumably wanted to know if the guests could shed any light on the words or actions of the Woodwards just prior to the shooting.

'Lovey Dovey'

Some sources have said the couple quarreled violently in the past and had discussed divorce or separation. They have been described, however, as having been on good terms, and even "lovey dovey" at the Saturday night social.

A number of those who attended the party also attended the funeral in St. James Episcopal Church 71st St. and Madison Ave. The duchess was not among those seen at the church.

Dr. John M. Prutting, Mrs. Woodward's physician, said the widow had "a bad reaction of intense grief" when she learned she could not attend the service and could be represented only by flowers.

"She ordered a blanket of large, white chrysanthemums and red carnations," Dr. Prutting told newsmen.

Late Salk Vaccine Arrival Holds Up Distribution Plan

A week has gone by since a shipment of polio vaccine arrived in Nebraska, but state health officials still hope there will be enough on hand by Nov. 15 to begin distribution to doctors.

"But there's no use to begin until we have enough to give the second shot, which must be given within four weeks of the first, to a sizeable number of individuals," Dr. E. A. Rogers, state Health Director, commented.

Only about ten per cent of the 300,000 shots Nebraska is supposed to get is on hand. The full amount allocated to this state would be enough for two shots for 150,000 persons.

The first shipments arrived in the state Oct. 5. Another followed on Oct. 18 and one on Oct. 25 made four in all.

Dr. Rogers said he does not understand the delay in arrival of the vaccine.

"We are besieged with requests, but we don't have enough yet to begin a general distribution," he commented.

Alaska's Fifth

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Federal Communications Commission authorized construction of Alaska's by the Alaska Broadcasting System, Inc., on Channel 8 at Juneau, Alaska.

In another action, the commission approved the sale or transfer of controls for a number of statins including KAVE, KAVE-TV, Carlsbad, N.M.; KRKD and KRKD-FM, Los Angeles; KSTT, Davenport, Iowa; KROBE, Las Cruces, N.M.; and KMYR, Denver, Colo.

Three Are Arrested In Morals Squad Raid

OMAHA (AP) — Two women and a man were arrested here in a police morals squad raid.

Mona Lane, alias Lamoine, 35, was booked as a keeper of a common ill-governed house. The other woman, who gave her name as Viola Brown, 26, and a 35-year-old Springveiw, Neb., man were booked as inmates.

Hope Fades

SAPPORO, Hokkaido (Thursday) (INS) — Hope was virtually abandoned today that any of 60 miners trapped in a mile-deep shaft explosion Tuesday in central Hokkaido could rave survived.

The bodies of 27 miners were recovered yesterday. Police said it was virtually impossible that any of the remaining 33 trapped men could be alive in the gas-filled shafts.

To Meet Molotov

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Arkady A. Sobolev, Soviet delegate at the U.N., will fly to Geneva Thursday for talks with Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. Soviet sources would not give the purpose of Sobolev's trip. However, Sobolev was the Russian delegate on the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee and diplomats speculated he will brief Molotov on the subcommittee talks.

In Prison 20 Of 23 Years, He's In Again

A 47-year-old ex-convict, who has been locked up for 20 out of the past 23 years, was sent back to prison Wednesday.

Lancaster District Judge Paul White sentenced Curtis G. Barnes, most recently of Lincoln, to two years in the Penitentiary for possession of burglary tools.

Barnes had pleaded no contest Oct. 25 to the charge after his jury term when a mistrial was declared.

The defendant was arrested by Lincoln police on July 12 and was charged with possession of burglary tools that were found in his car.

Barnes had been released last May 25 from federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., after serving almost three years and five months on a five-year term for bank robbery.

Other convictions which kept him in prison almost continuously since 1932 include forgery, bulglary, receiving stolen property, and Dyer Act violations.

Barnes is wanted for parole violation and has two detainers filed against him from other states.

Year On Check Charge

Leonard W. Toner, 29, from Jackson, Mich., was sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary on a charge of issuing a $40 no-account check Oct. 20 in Lincoln. Toner, who had pleaded guilty to the charge, lived in Lincoln since April following his release from a Michigan prison on bad check term. He had previously served nine years for forgery in Michigan, according to the records.

GOOD CRUDE FOUND NEAR ORLEANS

ORLEANS, Neb. (AP) — Oil reported to be a good grade of crude has been swabbed at the rate of 3½ barrels an hour at a recently completed will six miles south of here.

The well, the Porter No. 1, is an offset of one drilled last spring which has been on the pump more than three months.

The new well was perforated at 3,647 feet.

There is considerable belief that this may be the start of a new oil pool in Nebraska.

Another off-set well will be drilled within 30 days. Further interest in the area is indicated by sale of an adjoining 80-acre lease for $1,100 last week.

Both of the wells already drilled, and the third well to be drilled, are being financed by central Nebraska and Kansas residents.

Bureaucrats Invent 30 Information Classifications Despite Order

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional committee disclosed Wednesday that about 30 new classifications have been created to keep nonsecurity government information from the public.

The classifications include such designations as "need to know" and "medical-private."

The disclosure was made by a special House committee created this year to study government information policies and to determine whether the public is being deprived by federal agencies of information which it could have without jeopardizing security.

80 Questions

The committee, headed by Rep. Moss (D-Calif), published a 552-page summary of the replies of 63 executive agencies to questionnaires sent them by the committee last summer. Each agency was asked to reply to 80 queries about its information policies.

The committee published the replies without comment or analysis.

Despite a December 1953 presidential order designed to limit the classification of information to "top secret", "secret" and "confidential,"—and then only when security is involved—numerous other designations are being used to indicate that material is not to be made public.

The Post Office Department, the questionnaires disclosed, uses "confidential," restricted to headquarters," and restricted to use of principal staff," to keep information out of general circulation.

Confidential

The "confidential" designation also is used by the Federal Power Commission, the Federal Reserve Board, the Interior and Labor departments, the Selective Service system and the Subversive Activities Control Board.

Other designations used to keep information or other data under wraps include:

"Accepted in confidence," Tariff Commission.

"Administratively restricted," Commerce Department and Budget Bureau.

"Confidential and privileged," Veterans' Administration.

"Confidential treatment," Securities and Exchange Commission.

"For official distribution," Commerce Department.

"For use only within the corporation," St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation.

"Limited official use," Commerce, Labor and State departments.

"Medical-private," Civil Service Commission.

"Need to know," Defense Department, Central Intelligence Agency and many other agencies.

"Not for public inspection," Federal Communications Commission.

"Special release research memoranda" and "service release research memoranda," National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

A committee spokesman said some of the designations may be legitimate but expressed a suspicion that many of them were contrived to keep information bottled up despite the 1953 order limiting the use of classification markings.

The agencies involved, or some of them, will be asked to explain during public hearings to be held next week.

School Of Whales Commit Suicide On Florida Beach

MELBOURNE, Fla. (AP)—A school of small whales, apparently committing suicide, stormed through the surf to shore Wednesday and 53 of the mammals were stranded on the sand or thrashed in the shallows.

They were pilot whales, or blackfish, and ranged in weight from about a ton to small calves of about 100 pounds. Air-breathers, they may live for long periods out of water.

One of the calves was placed back in the water several times but swam back to shore.

The largest whale is a 14-foot bull which apparently led the school to the shore.

They are known to migrate from Greenland and the Norwegian coast to the Cape of Good Hope and it is suspected they go ashore because they dislike warm waters.

Ex-Lincolnite Now An AT&T Attorney

Harold B. Whitfield, Pelhamwood, N. Y., a former Lincolnite, has been appointed general patent attorney for American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Mr. Whitfield, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitfield of Lincoln, graduated from the University of Nebraska College of Engineering in 1917. He later studied law in night school at Columbia University and was admitted to the bar. He is a brother of Mrs. Guy Mickel of Nebraska City.

Mr. Whitfield has been general patent attorney for Western Electric Co,. an affiliate of AT&T.

Quake Hits

PASO ROBLES, Calif. (AP) — A sharp earthquake occurred here Wednesday, but no damage was reported. Paso Robles is about 200 miles southeast of San Francisco.

The quake also was felt at Salinas and Monterey, 100 miles northwest of here.

Joe Uncovers 'Facts On Communist Cell Operating In NLRB'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) said Wednesday he has "succeeded in uncovering facts, which, if true, establish the existence of a currently functioning Communist cell" in the National Labor Relations Board.

"My information incriminates a large number of individuals who at this very moment hold top level jobs in this government agency," McCarthy said in a letter to Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) of the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

McCarthy urged that the subcommittee on which he is the senior Republican undertake an immediate investigation.

McCarthy sent copies of his letter to the Senate press gallery late Wednesday for general distribution to newsmen. The Chicago Tribune had published the substance of it in its Wednesday edition.

Asked for comment on the basis of the Tribune story, Philip Ray Rodgers, acting chairman of the NLRB, told The Associated Press: "I would rather not comment at this time until I can see exactly what the senator says."

McCarthy wrote McClellan:

"My information indicates that the NLRB is literally honeycombed with individuals identified either as members of the Communist party or as having had years of constant close association with known and-or suspected Communists and Soviet agents."

McCarthy, apparently referring to the House Committee on Un-American Activities, said he understood that "another congressional group is in possession of information concerning past subversive activity in the NLRB."

January Probe

The House committee announced some time ago that it would hold public hearings in January in an investigation of Communist infiltration of government.

Chairman Walter (D-Pa) has described the forthcoming hearings as among the most important held by the House committee, and said they would concern the NLRB among other agencies.

Admitted Member

A committee spokesman has said Herbert Fuchs has admitted in closed hearings that he was a member of Red cells in the NLRB and the old War Labor Board before quitting the Communist party in disillusionment in 1946.

Fuchs, expected to be a principal witness at the House committee's hearings in January, became a professor of law at American University here in 1949. Only last Saturday the university trustees voted to allow his contract to expire in June.

After referring to the information of another congressional group, McCarthy said that "while it is of great importance that such evidence of past subversion be brought to light, the present situation appears to be so critical that, in my opinion, the (Senate) Investigations subcommittee must immediately undertake an inquiry. . . ."

Traffic Counters Show Popularity Of 1-Way Streets

A State Highway Department survey shows Lincoln's one-way streets are proving popular with city drivers.

John Hossack, chief of the Department's program and planning division, said automatic traffic counters showed a 43 per cent increase in traffic over the one-way streets from a year ago.

The one-way system was put into effect last August.

September figures show 16th and 17th Streets carried a combined average of 15,593 vehicles every 24 hours. This was 43 per cent more than the combined daily average of 10,940 vehicles the streets carried during September of 1954.

Hossack said the increased use of the one-way streets apparently is easing the traffic pressure on other north-south streets in the city, such as 10th, 13th, and 27th.

Soviet Accepts

MOSCOS (INS) — Soviet leaders were understood to have accepted Premier U Nu's invitation to visit Burma. Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev probably will make the visit in December after a visit to India.

MITCHELL SAYS:

T-H Law Changes Unlikely

DENVER (INS) — Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell said after a meeting with President Eisenhower Wednesday that he does not expect Congress to approve administration proposals for revision of the Taft-Hartley law next year.

Mitchell said that the Democratic-controlled Congress already has shown no intention to take any action on Taft-Hartley and for that reason he expects the dozen or so amendments the administration has proposed to fall by the wayside.

The chief executive, gaining strength in Fitzsimmons Hospital for his return to Gettysburg a week from next Friday, did more walking Wednesday, than he has since his heart attack of almost six weeks ago.

No Action Taken

Mitchell said that he and the President agree to push next year for congressional action on a half dozen measures introduced last year but on which no action has been taken.

Included, he said, are the desired changes in the Taft-Hartley law. But Mitchell told a news conference: "Very frankly, I don't feel that any action at all is going to be taken on Taft-Hartley next year."

The Associated Press said White House press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the President "had a weak Scotch and soda one night before dinner last week."

Whisky sometimes is prescribed for heart patients, so a reporter inquired: "For medical purposes?"

"No," Hagerty replied. "He wanted it."

They Know Their English

Three University of Nebraska freshman wrote eight themes apiece and on the basis of the themes were exempted from freshman English courses. They will be allowed to register for sophomore English courses. The three, who are (from left) Louis Dickinson of McCook, Barbara Michelmann of Grand Island and Fred F. M. Hiu of Honolulu, T.H., were among the 43 students selected to take a special two-week English course at the beginning of the school year. Approximately the upper 10 per cent of entering students qualifying for advanced freshman courses are eligible to take part in the two-week session. Two transfer students, exempted from composition courses at former schools, were also declared eligible for advanced courses. They are Charles L. Beans of Lincoln and Warren Burt of Scarsdale, N. Y.

More Attention Is Asked For Religion In State Institutions

The Board of Control received a letter Wednesday afternoon urging more attention to the spiritual need of the people in state institutions.

The letter was signed by 40 ministers and church leaders from south central Nebraska, headed by the Rev. Thomas B. Arends, president of the Hastings Ministerial Association.

The group wrote the board asking additional chaplains with "adequate renumeration" to meet the spiritual needs of approximately 8,000 institutionalized persons.

The latter said:

"It has come to our attention that of the present operational budget of the state institutions that in some instances as little as 58-1000th of one per cent is being spent for the religious care of patients and inmates, and that the over-all average is 191-1000th of one per cent—or less than two-fifths of one per cent.

Harold Peterson, administrative assistant to the Board, said religious services, both Protestant and Catholic, are provided at all institutions. He said in some they also have Lutheran services, Bible study and Sunday school.

Regular chaplains are assigned to the larger institutions, such as the penitentiary, but in several cases the services are provided by local volunteer workers, he said.

Funds have been raised for a chapel at the Hastings State Hospital, but the project hit a snag last spring when the bids exceeded the amount available.

Peterson said an attempt is being made now to scale down the project to bring it within the funds on hand, and there may also be an attempt to raise more money.

He said the Board would consider the letter at an early meeting.

NU Students Prefer 2-Week Exam Period

The majority of University of Nebraska students are in favor of retaining the present two-week final examination period, it was shown by the results of a survey taken of student opinion.

Students favor the two-week final schedule by a ratio of about 4½ to 1, unofficial and incomplete totals of the poll show. The poll was taken during class periods by the Student Council. Of 2,342 students replying to the questionnaire, 1,922 voted for a two-week period and 420 for the one-week length.

By colleges in which questionnaire answers had been tabulated, the ratios of students favoring the two weeks were: College of Agriculture, 2½ to 1; Arts and Sciences, 8 to 1; Business Administration, 5½ to 1; Engineering, 4 to 1; Pharmacy, 12 to 1; Teachers, 7 to 1; Unclassified, 2 to 1.

NU Freshmen Debate Teams Win 7 Of 9

University of Nebraska freshman and beginning debate teams took seven out of nine debates at a triangular meet with Hastings and Kearney freshman and beginning teams. The meet was held at Hastings.

Sarah Jones of Lincoln and Nancy Copeland of Columbus won all three debates.

The teams of Stan Fellman and Robert Myers, both of Omaha, and Lee Arnot of Lincoln and George Moyer of Madison, both won two out of three.

No Clemency Petitions Submitted For Inmates

Secret Testimony Of Pen Officials Hit In Pardon Board Discussions

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

Unless the Board of Pardons should decide to take further action at its meeting next Wednesday, there will be no clemency applications from Penitentiary inmates heard at the December meeting.

Warden Joseph Bovey of the Penitentiary failed to have a list of recommendations by the classification committee ready for consideration by the board at an executive meeting Tuesday. The Men's Reformatory submitted seven applicants which the board agreed to hear.

At the same time the board acted on cases originally heard and deferred at the October session. Nine of the 15 cases heard were refused clemency and six received favorable action.

"It was the poorest group ever recommended to the board for action since I have served on the board," Attorney General C. S. Beck said. "I told the board that in the future my vote would be against hearing the type of applicants we had last month. Duties of my office are too great to waste time on people unquestionably ineligible for consideration."

Unusually Active

Beck said that recently Penitentiary officials have been taking an unusually active part in pleading the cause of certain inmates recommended for clemency.

It long has been custom for the board to allow officials to attend the executive sessions so as to be available for further questioning by the board members. However, officials did not attempt to tell the board what action to take, Beck said.

Beck said he had received suggestions that if prison officials have anything to say in individual cases they should be sworn and give their testimony at the public hearing.

The press is excluded from the executive sessions and information given by prison officials never comes to public attention.

Lead To Suspicions

The system of having prison officials make recommendations and then in executive session be able to give testimony in behalf of their actions can very easily lead to suspicions of improper activities behind the prison walls with the board used as a screen, one veteran state employe remarked.

"It is not fair to the board and can very easily grow into improper practices and graft," he continued.

Gov. Victor Anderson was out of the city and comments could not be obtained from him on the board's action.

The board also refused the request of Supt. M. L. Wimberly of the Men's Reformatory for permission for inmates to accompany guards to other states to pick up surplus property that is to be distributed to Nebraska.

Beck pointed out that guards would have no authority when they crossed state lines and that if inmates decided to leave there could be no escape charges filed against them.

Set for hearing at the Men's Reformatory on Dec. 14 were these applications:

Robert Brown, 30, Imperial, no fund check, Chase County, two to five years from 1954.

Ray A. Brown, 21, Elkhart, Ind., uttering forged instrument, Dodge County, one to three years, 1955.

John R. Lane, 42, Des Moines, Ia., larceny from person, Douglas, two years, 1954.

James Hartley, 22, Antonito, Colo., forgery, Douglas, one to three years, 19955.

Carl Burnell, 28, Omaha, burglary, Douglas, two years, 1954.

Donald Simmons, 24, Beatrice, burglary and violation bench parole, Gage, four to six years, 1954.

Lloyd Blevins, 27, Salem, breaking and entering, Richardson, four years, 1954.

The cases heard last month on which the board acted favorably were:

Vincent R. Pena, 31, San Antonio, Texas, breaking and entering auto, Douglas County, two years, received 1954; commuted and discharged.

Burton Batchelor, 37, Chicago, Ill., burglary, Lancaster, five years, 1953; commuted to Illinois authorities.

Edw. Young, 29, Lincoln, receiving stolen property, Lincoln County, four years, 1954; paroled.

Loren C. Shelby, 55, Mitchell, burning to defraud insurance company, Morrill County, three years, 1954; paroled.

Fred Sillik, 34, Omaha, grand larceny, Nemaha County, two and one-half years, 1954; paroled.

Louis Delzene, 30, Omaha, grand larceny, Nemaha County, three years, 1954; paroled.

These applicants were denied:

Harris Morgan, 46, Salt Lake City, breaking and entering, Douglas County, five years.

Max D. Amick, 27, Hastings, robbery, Douglas, 15 years.

Earl F. Bransen, 43, Arizona, robbery, Douglas, 25 years.

William H. Grantham, 47, Omaha, forgery, Douglas, 7 years.

Vernon L. Babbitt, 29, Hamburg, Ia., robbery, Douglas, 7 years.

Richard E. Kerns, 26, Omaha, robbery, Douglas, 7 years.

Erwin E. Wittrock, 44, Omaha, assault, to commit sodomy, Douglas, three years.

Delvin Schleufer, 32, Deshler, motor vehicle homicide, Franklin, three and one-half to five years.

Lala A. Rivera, 27, Brighton, Colo., breaking and entering and violation bench parole, Scotts Bluff, three to five years.

Misrepresentation Of Gas Purchases Brings Fine Of $75

A Lincoln truck driver was fined $75 in Lancaster County Court for obtaining money falsely from his employer by misrepresenting gasoline purchases on trips.

Bruce C. Baker, 34, of 1901 J was charged with fraudently obtaining less than $35 from the Ford Van Lines by misrepresentation of gasoline purchases allegedly totaling $61.

Based on reported purchases, Baker's truck made only three miles to the gallon instead of the normal 6.5 miles, company officials estimated.

Baker said other truck drivers pad expense accounts. "I stuck my neck out and I got caught," he added. He agreed actions of others was no excuse for his wrongdoing.

Baker was also ordered to make restitution to his employer by the court.

Goal Of Peron Is Puzzle

Follows Odd Route To Reach Nicaragua

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Juan D. Peron broke off his exile in Paraguay Wednesday and flew to Brazil. His ultimate destination was announced as Nicaragua, but speculation arose that the deposed President of Argentina might be heading for Europe.

Officials in Paraguay provided a plane for him and breathed a sigh of relief. Insisting on anonymity, they said his departure relieved them of many worries. But they insisted it was Peron's own idea.

The Paraguayan army DC4 halted in Rio de Janeiro three hours, landing in a military section of the airport closed to the public, and then headed northward. An Air Force captain quoted Peron as saying he was going to Nicaragua, as had been announced in Paraguay—but it wasn't clear why he was traveling around Brazil's hump when he could go to Nicaragua on a more direct route via Lima, Peru. Indeed, Lima had been announced in Paraguay as his immediate goal.

In northeastern Brazil there are several large bases from which planes take off for Europe.

In Managua, President Anastasio Somoza told the Associated Press that Peron would be welcome to take asylum in Nicaragua. But he said he had no knowledge of the former dictator's plans.

New Animal Law Ready To Be Enforced

Enforcement of the city's new animal ordinance is now under way.

Welfare and Safety Director Emmett Junge has stated that his office is now ready to receive applications for the keeping of horses and other animals, except dogs, cats and rabbits, within the city limits. A fee of $5 will be charged for such a license.

The new ordinance requires that a license must be obtained for the keeping of horses and some other animals within the city limits. License applications will be processed through the Health Department.

Animal owners will be given a short grace period in which to obtain licenses before prosecutions are started on violation of the law, Junge said.

Notice To Contractors

Sealed proposals will be received by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, at the office of the City Clerk, up to 10 o'clock a.m., Central Standard Time, Wednesday, November 9, 1955, for the construction of the paving in Paving District No. 1376, being Vine Street from 48th Street to 56th Street, in said City according to the plans and specifications of the City Engineer on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Plans and specifications may be seen and blank proposals obtained in the office of the City Engineer.

The City Engineer's estimate of the cost of this paving is $72,000.00.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check for $3,600.00, made payable to Frank J. Miller, City Treasurer, as a guarantee of good faith.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive any defect in proposals.

THEO. H. BERG, City Clerk.

Trust Charge Called Untrue By Publishers

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. have denied government charges that it conspired to allocate newspaper advertising to a selected group of advertising agencies in violation of antitrust laws.

The ANPA asked federal Judge William B. Herlands to dismiss the case.

Five other defendants were named with the ANPA last May. They are the American Assn. of Advertising Agencies, the Publishers Assn. of New York City, the Periodical Publishers Assn., Associated Business Papers, and the Agricultural Publishers Assn.

The Publishers Assn. of New York City also filed an answer to the government suit denying the allegations. The other four defendents asked and obtained a 90-day extension in which to make their replies.

The ANPA brief denied that it or anyone authorized to act for it is engaged in a conspiracy in restraint of trade, or that it intended to do so by any of its actions.

The ANPA said it has a right to gather and disseminate to its members credit information on anyone placing ads in daily newspapers.

The government had charged that this activity was designed to restrict the placing of ads to a selected group of advertising agencies.

Airman Sorry After Shooting; Gets Sentence

Willie J. Fisher, 22, from Cleveland, O., was sentenced to a one-to-three-year Reformatory term Wednesday in Lancaster District Court on assault with intent to do great bodily harm.

The Lincoln airman, who lived with his family at 2228 U, had pleaded guilty to the shooting of another airman, Leonard Hooks, 20, last Oct. 23 near the Silver-Ra Club at 910 R. Hooks was wounded twice in the leg.

Fisher told the court he was "sorry for what I've done" and his attorney said that prior to the assault Fisher was "beaten up by four men and had fled to the police station to escape."

Later, Fisher went home and returned with a gun, according to authorities.

Judge Paul White said the law does not permit probation on this charge, but noted the defendant had never been in any trouble before and was commended by his base officers on his Air Force service.

Notice To Contractors

Sealed proposals will be received by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, at the office of the City Clerk up to 10 o'clock a.m., Central Standard Time, Wednesday, November 9, 1955, for the construction of the water feeder main in 33rd Street from Holdrege Street to the C. B. & Q. Railroad right-of-way, in said City, according to the plans and specifications of the City Engineer on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Plans and specifications may be seen and blank proposals obtained in the office of the City Engineer.

The City Engineer's estimate of the cost of this water feeder main is $45,000.00.

Each proposal must be accompained by a certified check for $2,250.00, made payable to Frank J. Miller, City Treasurer, as a guarantee of good faith.

The city reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive any defect in proposals.

THEO. H. BERG, City Clerk

Notice of Hearing on Report of City Planning Commission

Notice is hereby given that the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, will hold a hearing on Monday, November 7, 1955, at 1:30 o'clock p.m., in the Council Chamber of the City Hall, to consider the following changes in the Lincoln District Map, and additional use permits:

1. Petition of Northwestern Metal Company for a change of zone from "I" Commercial to "K" Heavy Industrial on Lots 3 and 10, Block 10, Original Plat, being located between "T" and "U" and 9th and 10th Streets.

Stocks Up Little In Quiet Session

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market crawled through its third quiet session Wednesday with prices headed up a little at the finish.

Gains and losses spread over a $2 range.

Business continued dull with 1,610,000 shares changing hands, compared with 1,590,000 Tuesday.

Most major divisions were mixed. A higher look was found in non-ferrous metals and railroads. Airlines were mostly lower.

The market now is above the recent lows reached in the big reaction that started Sept. 26 on news of President Eisenhower's illness.

Many brokers believe the market currently is testing the old lows with dull drifting of prices a part of the test.

Tax selling and switching already is under way, and the market has been able to absorb such selling with comparative ease.

Once the bulk of that type of selling is out of the way, brokers say, the market should be in a better position to assert itself.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks Tuesday was up 10 cents at $168.80 with industrials lower by 10 cents, rails up 50 cents and utilities up 10 cents.

The American Stock Exchange was mixed on volume of 540,000 shares as compared with 460,000 Tuesday.

Feed Grains Lead Other Cereals Up

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains moved higher again Wednesday on the Board of Trade.

The advance wasn't accompanied by a heavy turnover in anything except soybeans.

Feed grains were firm from the start, sustained by colder weather over much of the livestock producing area.

An irregular trend prevailed in other cereals but they soon started to follow the leadership of feed grains.

Wheat closed ¾-1¼ higher, corn ⅜ to 1 cent higher oats ⅛-½ higher and rye ¼ lower to ½ higher.

Soybeans closed ¾-1¾ higher and lard 27 to 38 cents a hundred pounds higher.

3 Breakins Net Thieves But Little

Three break-ins, all on No. 48th, sometime Tuesday night netted burglars between $20 and $25 from three business places.

The Red Dot Cafe at 2618 No. 48th was entered through a south window and an attempt made to pry open the cash register. When this failed, the one-cent key was punched and entry gained.

Between $20 and $25 was taken from the register, according to Mrs. Russell Norman of 5726 Madison.

Nothing was reported missing from the Danielson Floral Co. at 840 No. 48th in a burglary attempt in which the office was ransacked. Arthur Danielson, 3115 Ryons, said entry was made through a broken basement window.

The Doyle Shoe Repair at 2734 No. 48th was entered through a rear window. Fifty cents was taken from the cash register.

Official Pearl Harbor Report Author Absolves Roosevelt

WASHINGTON (AP)—The author of an official Army board report on the tragedy of Pearl Harbor told a congressional committee Wednesday the board found that the late President Roosevelt was in no "way, shape or form . . . guilty of Pearl Harbor."

The author, H. A. Toulmin Jr., Dayton, Ohio, and Washington attorney, volunteered the statement while testifying on antitrust matters at a House Small Business Committee meeting. Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif), son of the former President, is a committee member.

Attack Prober

Toulmin was a member of the Army Pearl Harbor Board which investigated the sneak attack. After concluding his testimony on antitrust matters, Toulmin went entirely outside that subject to tell the committee:

"Everything appears of record in that (Pearl Harbor) report with one exception which I would mention as long as I am before Congress under oath. Mr. Roosevelt (James) will be interested in this: I made a finding and submitted it to the board and it was concurred in by the board, but it was not put into the report because they thought it was indelicate for them to comment on the President of the United States, your father.

"I made a finding that there was not a scrap of information, not a fact, not an inference, in any way, shape or form, that showed Mr. Roosevelt was guilty of Pearl Harbor. I'm glad to make that of public record." There was no questioning by committeemen, nor elaboration by Toulmin, to bring out just what he meant by "guilt."

Toulmin, a patent attorney, got into the subject of government inquiry boards in general by way of a discussion of the operation of such groups in the patent and antitrust fields. He mentioned his own membership in the Army's Pearl Harbor Board and interjected the comment about the late President.

NICE, France (AP) — The Aga Khan, leader of the Ismaili Moslem sect, noted his 78th birthday in his French Riviera villa. Among the visitors was his son Prince Aly Khan, who was accompanied by a Paris fashion model.

To Retire

YORK, England (Thursday)—Dr. Dyril Garbett, archibishop of York and second-ranking prelate in the Church of England, said he is retiring soon because of age and ill health. He is 80 years old.

A statemen from the archbishop's residence said he had obtained Queen Elizabeth's permission to retire—probably early in 1956.
